SOCIETY BANQUETS PROVE SUCCESSFUL

Many Alumnae Present at Various Functions Last Part of the Week

The Adelphean banquet on Friday night was the most successful that has ever been given. The dining room was beautifully decorated with fern and red dahlias, carrying out a color scheme of red and white; the menu was the most tempting, the music was the best, and the men even more plentiful than ever before.

Miss Pauline Green, as toastmistress, presided with grace and ease. After welcoming everyone, she introduced Miss Gladys Whitley, who greeted the new Adelpheans and made them feel at once that they were full-fledged society members. Miss Julia Franc, of the Freshman Class, responded. She made everyone realize that the new members were loyal and devoted Adelpheans. Miss Virginia Davis toasted "Our Old Friends, the Alumnae." Miss Rachel Clifford, '20, responded. Miss Florence Way welcomed the Dikeans and Cornelians, and Miss Ruth Vick and Miss Mildred Price responded for their Societies. Miss Flossie Foster toasted Adelphean. As a response, a beautiful dance was given in the Grecian temple constructed in the center of the dining room. The dancers were: Julia Maie Southerland, Evelyn Hodges, Clyde Wright, Helen Feree, Evelyn Wilson, Frances Singleton, Sallie Lee Collins, and Eva Hodges.

Miss Aline Mulder greeted "The men—our strength in ages past." Mr. William Andrews, of the University, responded.

Miss Mildred Barrington toasted the College, and Professor E. C. Lindeman responded.

The menu was:
Grapefruit in half shell
Creamed chicken in Timbales
Buttered Peas Mashed Potatoes
Parker House Rolls and Butter
Ice Cream Wafers
Coffee
Mints

CORNELIAN BANQUET CLOSES INITIATIONS

Following the initiation of new members, a most delightful social hour was enjoyed by the Cornelians, who gathered at their annual banquet Saturday evening. Miss Gladys Wells, as toastmistress, presided gracefully and gave a welcome to all. Japanese lanterns and branches of cherry blossoms were used in the dining room with brilliant effect.

A cordial toast to the Alumnae was given by Miss Anne Fulton, and responded to by Miss Ida Gardner. Following this was a Japanese dance, beautifully performed by a group in costume, around the Japanese pergola and cherry tree in the center of the dining room. The honorary

DEMOCRATS IN CONVENTION ELECT THEIR CANDIDATES

Wells, Who is Proxy For Cox, is Confident of Victory. Enthusiasm Runs High, and Crowds Cheer Speakers For Democracy

With whoops and yells the big Democratic convention opened on the steps of Students' Building Tuesday at 12:15. This lively meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mildred Barrington, who explained the reason for the meeting. Nominations were then in order for President. The various nominees made stirring and impressive speeches in their behalf and that of the party. Gladys Wells was elected President. The vice-president was next elected. Many were the nominees, but of all these, Hon. Myrtle Warren, who made a thrilling address, was elected with an overwhelming majority. Though the contest for the office of campaign manager was hot and spirited, Blanch Plott won on the plea that she was poor and needed the money. The electoral college was voted upon. These twelve girls are to meet with the electoral college from Greensboro College and elect the President. Judging from the size of the crown, the ring of the cheers and yells, and the rousing speeches, one would be quite safe in saying that "the donkey still wears the halter."

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED FOR GLEE CLUB

New officers have been elected for the College Glee Club and they have already begun making enthusiastic plans for the year's work. Many new members have been accepted in the vocal department and it is hoped there will be numbers of girls to try out for the mandolin and guitar departments.

The officers are: General Manager, Elizabeth Lindsay; Manager of Vocal Department, Helen Ferree; Mandolin Department, Sarah Harrison; Guitar Department, Elizabeth Jones.

MONSTER VISITS NEWSPAPER MEETING—EDITOR-IN- CHIEF GREATLY TERRIFIED

Last Monday night a great havoc was wrought at the weekly newspaper meeting. The managing editor and editor-in-chief were calmly seated at their desks, doing out news, when in flew a large black fly right above the head of the managing editor. At any moment the cruel creature seemed ready to pounce upon the head of its innocent victim. Round and round it flew and louder and louder grew the noise and shouts of distress until it seemed that the whole building must fall. But one of the quick witted reporters hastily seized a large black bag in one hand and a broom in the other and gave the wild insect a blow on the cranium. It fell to the floor with a loud buzz. Coroner Rhyme made a post-mortem examination and proved the creature to be a honey bee of the most ferocious type. No damage was done other than giving a great number of journalists a terrible scare.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Join a Bible Study Class. You cannot be a Maximum Student if you do not join a Bible Study Class. These classes begin Wednesday night, November 3. Let every student join one.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF LECTURE COURSES

Mr. Brown, chairman of the concert lecture course committee, announces the following:

The first concert will be given by Florence Macbeth, November 10, 1920. Miss Macbeth is the leading coloratura soprano of the Chicago Grand Opera Company. She possesses a faultless pearly coloratura voice of flutelike purity and this, with the admirable artistic qualities of her singing, place her in the foremost ranks of the great artists of all time. Miss Macbeth was one of the leading soloists at the Asheville Musical Festival held the past summer, and it is a rare treat to have her in Greensboro.

Other numbers already arranged are two lectures by the noted writer and lecturer, Norman Angell, on Friday, December 3, 1920; and a concert by the Letz String Quartet February 14, 1921. Engagements for the remaining numbers of the course are still pending.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS ELECTED

The class of Red and White held its regular business meeting Saturday afternoon in Curry Chapel. The following officers were elected for the fall term:

President, Clarissa Abernathy; vice-president, Eva Hodges; secretary, Leah Willis; treasurer, Kathryn Gaston; critic, Elizabeth Fulton; cheer-leader, Dorothy Clement; class athletic manager, Lena Whitley.

"Ye Junior Shoppe" has sample pictures of the "College Celebrities" on exhibition and will take orders for them, at the rate of 4c per print.

A supply of College Seals and rings both in silver and gold, are now on hand at reasonable prices.—Ye Junior Shoppe.

COLLEGE ALUMNAE MEET AT N. C. C. W.

Many To Gather Here Nov- 6 To Discuss Plans for the Future

An important meeting of our Alumnae will be held at the College Saturday, November 6, the purpose being to take up problems affecting the growth and development of the College. An afternoon and an evening session will be held. Several committees have been appointed, and a schedule of the work to be considered is being drawn up.

This meeting is the outgrowth of a meeting of Guilford county Alumnae, at which Dr. Foust spoke of the needs of the College and the efforts that are being made to meet the need. It is hoped that a definite program of growth may be outlined.

EUTERPE CLUB MEETING AT Y. W. C. A. HUT

The Greensboro Euterpe Club will hold its first meeting of the season Saturday afternoon, October 30, in the Y. W. C. A. hut of the North Carolina College. After a short business meeting, a reception will be given to all the members by the club members of the North Carolina College faculty. Mr. Shaw will render the following selections:

Tuzzy Wuzzy ----- Whitney
I Passed By Your Window ----- Brake
Prosit ----- De Koven

The Senior music pupils of both North Carolina and Greensboro Colleges have been invited to become student members of the club, and will be present at this meeting.

ANNUAL WORK BEGINS

A contract for the picture work of the "Pine Needles" has been signed with the Pelton Studio, of Asheville, and a photographer has already been at work on the campus.

The engraving will be done by the John Ollier firm, of Chicago, one of the largest engraving concerns in the United States. They make a specialty of college annuals and are probably the best in this line that can be obtained. A contract for the printing was given at the staff meeting Friday.

The staff has held three meetings this week and the Annual work is going ahead steadily.

HAVE YOU HEARD?—

What?—The PLAY.
Who?—The SENIORS.
When?—December.
Where?—Auditorium in Students' Building.

Result—A jolly evening of laughter and fun.

Conclusion—The best ever!

AN OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE OUR COLLEGE COURSES COMPLETE

Girls, did you know Bible Study Classes begin next week? With all our studies and books, we can't afford to neglect the greatest book ever written in any language, if we are to become the women we hope to be some day. The purpose of these classes is to promote Christian education. And as we educate ourselves in other branches, we can't afford to neglect the great Christian principles, upon which rest the future welfare of mankind.

As a general theme for our classes, we shall study the principles and progress of the Kingdom of God directly from the Bible. The classes will be arranged for, under the upper classmen, according to the nature of the course, but no student will be prohibited from taking the course she most desires to study.
Then let each of us go to Vesper Services Sunday evening and learn more about the Bible Study Classes, and when an opportunity is given us to join, how great it would be to have one hundred per cent. of us interested in the study of the Bible!
For Jesus said:

"I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."—John 10:10.

DOES THIS APPLY TO US?

(A visit to our Laundry)
HOW IT WORKS

"We wondered how they did it, so we sauntered down to see. The process is indeed marvelous and wonderful to behold.

First, the clothes are run through the De-Buttoner. When the clothes come out of this machine they are carefully examined and if any buttons remain they are run through again. The garments are then passed through the Ripper and Mangler
—a truly marvelous production of mechanical genius, which does all that its name implies. From this contraption they go into the De-Col-orer and from there to the Stainer and Streaker. They are now passed through the Distorter and pushed through the Wrinkler. The clothes are then moistened, tied in knots, and packed into small packages.—

"MARTIAL NEWS"

Once upon a time, the students of the North Carolina College for Women voted to enter their postoffice through the front door and to exit through the rear when the crowd was passing between classes. How about it?

Will they uphold the stand they took once upon a time and do the right thing even if it is a little more trouble to run around to the other door? But—while running around they must remember, "No trespassing on the grass."

DEMOCRATIC ISSUES STATED BY PRESIDENT ADAMS OF GEORGETOWN COLLEGE

1. A vote for Cox is a vote for the immediate ratification of the Versailles Treaty of Peace, which includes the League of Nations covenant.

2. It is a vote to indorse the work of Woodrow Wilson and to condemn the tactics of Senator Lodge and his helpers.

3. The Democratic party and candidates represent in this election the forces of progress. They alone have the forward look.

4. The Democrats will deal more wisely with the labor problems than the Republicans.

STEPS IN ADVANCE AS RESULT OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE ARE STATED BY MRS. CAREY THOMAS

1. Equal pay for equal work.
2. A larger number of women will be on the government boards in Universities and Colleges supported by State.

3. Marriage will no longer be regarded as a bar to holding profes-sorships.

4. Increased interest in economic and civic studies in the College courses, as women will be anxious to understand civic questions.

Last Monday the Freshman health class, which was studying ventilation had very vivid and realistic illustrations of the ill-effects of missing breakfast and insufficient ventilation.

While the class was in full swing
two students suddenly keeled over in "faints."

The excitement of initiation along with lack of "Major Ozone" and breakfast probably brought it on.

DIKE'S WELCOME TO HER NEW DAUGHTERS

Initiation is over! And more than a hundred of the finest new girls on the campus are now Dikeans. Thursday, October 21, the date of the Dikean initiation, will be long remembered by both old and new members. The old girls welcome the new into the fulness of "Dikeanship."

ANNOUNCEMENT

Spend your spare minutes making

Don't forget the Song Contest

Plans for the Song Contest to be held between the classes should be well under way and practice going on at all times. The contest will come off sometime soon and it promises to be a lively one. Win the distinction of being the "singingest" class on the campus!

REPUBLICANS HOLD CONVEN- TION

Anne Fulton Elected to Represent Harding—Everybody Enthusiastic

At 12:15 o'clock Thursday, Students' Building opened its doors to the great Republican convention.
The meeting was called to order by Anne Fulton midst rousing yells, and cheers. The names of the girls who are to compose the electoral college, were submitted. Each girl made an impressive, stirring speech why she should be elected. The electoral college was elected as submitted. Anne Fulton was then unanimously elected to represent Harding in this campaign. Eunice McAdams was elected vice-president and Alena Rhyne campaign manager. Both made rousing speeches as to what they stood for.
The adjournment was followed by lusty yells for Harding and Coolidge.

SOCIETY BANQUETS

members were toasted by Miss Ruth Winslow, Miss Byrd responding with her usual charm of manner. The toast to the Dikeans and Adelpians was given by Miss Mary Weaver, and responded to by Miss Vera Paschal.

The traditional Cornelian goat received his share of attention in a toast all to himself given by Miss Myrtle Warren, but no happy response from Billy was heard. The last toast was to our new members, cordially given by Miss Eunice McAdams, and responded to in a delightful manner by Miss Ruth Wilkins, of the Freshman Class.

Music by the O. Henry orchestra added much to an evening full of Cornelian spirit and good fellowship.

INDEPENDENTS, THE NEWEST PARTY, ORGANIZÉ WITH A BIG FOLLOWING

Hail to the Independents, the newest of our parties. Several girls, feeling the need of a stronger, cleaner party, met and drew up a platform of their own, taking from the other parties those planks they considered strongest. Already this party has quite a number of followers. The members met at noon Saturday and elected their President, Vice-President, and Campaign Manager. Good luck to you Independents!

COMINGS AND GOINGS

ATHLETICS

The student body welcomes the new plans for physical culture which gives them work and enjoyment. A greater interest in athletics is shown by the fact that over sixty girls were out on the hockey field Tuesday afternoon. Hockey is to be the fall sport and the tournament will be held on Thanksgiving Day. Basketball will be the spring sport. Any girl may play in both the Hockey and Basketball tournaments.

Schedule For Hockey

Tuesday—Field 1: Juniors vs. Seniors; Field 2: Freshmen vs. Sophomores.

Wednesday: Open.

Thursday—Field 1: Specials vs. Freshmen; Field 2: Seniors vs. Sophomores.

Friday—Field 1: Juniors vs. Freshmen; Field 2: Seniors vs. Specials.

On Wednesday any class may challenge another, notifying the sport leader, and coaches will arrange for games.

Schedule For Basketball

Tuesday—Court 1: Specials.

Wednesday—Court 1: Juniors; Court 2: Seniors.

Thursday: Open.

Friday: Sophomores.

Hiking

Regular hiking for Saturday afternoons has been arranged. Occasionally "bacon bats" will be a feature of the hikes and then the groups will make camp fires in the woods and return after dark. All who go must wear hiking shoes. The group will meet in the gym at 3:15 p. m. Further announcements concerning hiking will be made in the newspaper and on the bulletin board. As in other sports, hiking will count in the point system and emblems may be earned by hiking as well as by playing on sport teams.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Deaton-Alexander

Interesting to the many friends of McBride Alexander is the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Frank Deaton, of Statesville, N. C. Miss Alexander, of the class of '19, is well remembered here as the first president of the Dikean Society.

Miss Bollinger is taking several trips this week in order to arouse interest in the Alumnae Conference. She held a meeting in Ashboro Thursday and in Salisbury on Saturday. Next Monday and Thursday she will continue the work in Reidsville and Statesville.

Strudwick-Glenn Nuptials

A simple, yet very beautiful and impressive wedding occurred last Saturday at high noon when Miss Roberta Strudwick, of this city, became the bride of William Roy Glenn, of Asheville, N. C.

The Strudwick home was beautifully decorated in palms, ferns and cut flowers and was lighted by many candles.

Miss Dorothy Park, of Raleigh, sang "At Dawning," after which the bride and groom descended the stairs together and stood before the improvised altar where the wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murphy Williams, of the Church of the Covenant.

The bride wore a beautiful blue suit or duvetyne with accessories to match. Her flowers were orchids and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony, an informal reception was held and a delicious salad and an ice cream course was served.

The bride is a former student of N. C. College, being a member of the present Senior Class. She was very popular in College and her many friends here wish her much happiness.

STUMP SPEECHES ON ALL OCCASIONS

Every spare minute, between class periods, during noon hour, and anytime that may remain between dinner and study hour, is taken up with stump speeches. Cox and Harding have appeared on the campus in the form of Miss Gladys Wells and Anne Fulton. These candidates have been making party speeches to the masses on the campus. Campaign managers, White, otherwise Miss Blanche Plott, and Will H. Hays, well represented by Miss Alena Rhyne, are at work arranging the dates for their campaigns.

The latest addition to the political groups on the campus is the Independent party. At present they are working on their platform, which will be presented to the citizens of our campus very soon.

They end in smoke—I don't care.

MEETING OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB HELD

New Members Welcomed

There was an interesting as well as instructive meeting of the International Relations Club held Thursday night at 8 o'clock in Mr. Jackson's Recitation Room. Quite a number of girls were asked to become members, and after the initiation had been duly observed, the President, Miss Gullander, opened the meeting with the announcement that the question for discussion would be Ireland. Mr. Jackson began the discussion. He told all about Irish conditions prior to the World War. His talk was both educational and entertaining. Miss Gullander then gave a vivid description of Ireland during those times. The last talk was given by Miss Elliot, who gave a most interesting account of Ireland at the present day. Miss Elliot happened to be in England during the summer and so was able to give her hearers some first-hand information about Ireland and her troubles. After his talk, a general discussion took place.

THE NEW DINING ROOM BECOMES LESS OF A REALITY

The sound of the knocking hammer, the clink of the bricks, and the chug-chug of the steam engine have about disappeared from our campus. The amused faces of forty men no longer greet us as we madly race to breakfast, jumping brick piles, crawling under rafters, and wading thru sand piles. Now only three or four quiet, peaceful looking citizens make up our early morning audience. You ask me, "Why all this disappointment?" The carpenters and brick-masons have gone on a strike.

RECENT ACCESSIONS AT THE LIBRARY

Fiction

Manning, Mrs. Anne R. Maiden and married life of Mary Powell, 1901. 251p.

Family life of the poet Milton. Related with fullness of detail and written in close imitation of the old prose.

Fine Arts

Berenson, Bernard. Essays in the study of Sienese painting, 1918. 112p.

Critical and descriptive essays, generously illustrated.

Day, Lewis F. Pattern design, 1903. 264p.

Government

Beard, Charles A. Economic interpretation of the constitution of the United States, 1913. 330p.

A book for the special student in emphasis upon four groups of personality interests, money, public sen-sonality interests, money public se- which the author places the whole curities, manufactures and trade and shipping as instrumental in the farming and acceptance of the Constitution. The author has searched deeply and gives many valuable suggestions and new viewpoints to those who are acquainted with the foundations of the subject.

Carnegie endowment for international peace. Division of intercourse and education. American foreign policy, 1920. 128p.

There are here brought together these official statements by successive presidents and secretaries of state which, having been formally or tacitly accepted by the American people, constitute the foundation of American foreign policy. They are the classic declarations of policy which, taken together, present a record of which the American people may well be proud.

Cleveland, Frederick A. Organized democracy. 1913. 474p.

Depicts with much detail the evolution of popular sovereignty in the United States. The author believes that the demand for efficiency in government will be met only by administering the government as a corporation in which accounts are kept according to modern ideas.

History

Sams, Conway W. Conquest of Virginia; the forest primeval. 1916. 432p.

All illuminating account of the Virginia Indians written from the original records made by men who knew the tribes and the unbroken wilderness they inhabited. An accurate picture of the people among whom was begun the planting of European civilization and various forms of Protestant Christianity.

Brink, Bernhard ten. History of English literature. v. 2, parts 1 and 2. 339 and 309p.

Part 1: Wyclif, Chaucer, earliest drama, renaissance.

Part 2: From 14th century to the death of Surrey.

Cooper, Frederic T. Some American story tellers. 1911. 388p.

Essays on the work of Marion Crawford, Robert Herrick, Ellen Glasgow, Robert Chambers, Gertrude Atherton, Winston Churchill, Kate Douglas Wiggin, David Graham Phillips, Frank Norris, O. Henry, Owen Wister, Booth Tarkington, Edith Wharton and Ambrose Bierce. Critical analyses are conservative, and on the whole sound. The data on the less known writers and the bibliography (24p) giving published works, critical estimates and separate reviews, constitute the book's chief value.
