

... Energetic Adelphean initiates play leap frog in front of Students' building on Initiation day, September 30. Tormentors are not in sight.

... Dikean society president Gladys Tillett and group of initiates cut donkey shines with the Aletheian mule.

... Here is an innocent game of ring-around-the-roses with pillow-cases stuffed full of books. This picture was taken from the fire escape over the post office at Students' building.

... This vested choir (vestments are towels) swing out the laundry card to the tune of "Organ Grinder's Swing" in front of upperclass Kirkland.

The Carolinian

"Distinguished for Its Democracy"

Woman's College of the University of North Carolina

VOLUME XXII

Z 531

GREENSBORO, N. C. OCTOBER 4, 1940

NUMBER 2

Seniors Choose Eight Outstanding Members From Class of 1940

Leading Students Have Photographs in Feature Section of Pine Needles

Seniors have elected Elizabeth Patten, Annie Braswell, Peggy Dean, Bess Johnson, Frances Daniel, Eleanor Echols Mills, Julia Paschal, and Elizabeth Falls the most outstanding members of the class. These girls will have their pictures in the feature section of Pine Needles. Elections were held Wednesday, October 2, in the post office.

Madame President Patten

Elizabeth Patten is president of Student Government association. She has been treasurer of Student Government association, house president, recording secretary of the Aletheian society, and secretary of the Chemistry club. Last year her name was included in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. She has been a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet for two years, and she was on the honor roll two years. Elizabeth is a sociology major.

Vice-President Annie Braswell

Annie Braswell is majoring in Secretarial Science. She is vice-president of Student Government association and this year heads the college legislature. She has been house president, and her name was included in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities last year. Anne was class formal dance chairman her freshman year, a member of the freshman

(Continued on Page Four)

House Presidents Appoint Freshman Social Chairmen

New Girls Make Various Entertainment Plans For First Semester

Social chairmen for the first semester have been appointed by house presidents of the freshman halls, and social activities of various types are already underway.

Residents of Colt hall will have a pajama party on Monday night, October 7, for the second freshman hall social of the year, according to Jane Merrill, social chairman. Katherine Lewis is assisting the chairman in arranging the program.

Plans are now being completed for a social the first of the week for the girls in Bailey hall, stated Rita Gattheimer this week. Mull Lutz has been selected to serve as assistant chairman.

Freshman and commercial students who reside in Hinshaw had their first social of the year in the form of a supper at the Y hut on September 20. Girls who had charge of arrangements for the supper were Nancy Lamb, Mary Douglas Baxley, Madge Tugway, Doris Patta, and Elizabeth Hilsabeck.

Sue Hall and May March have been selected to serve as social chairmen for Gray and Cotten halls, respectively, but have announced no definite plans.

Inter-Faith Council Will Sponsor Vespers

Vesper services, sponsored by the Inter-Faith council, will be held in the campus halls every Thursday evening at 10:30 in the social parlors.

Doris McPherson is chairman of the program committee. Miss Margaret Fletcher is faculty adviser. Miss Helen Boyd, religious activities leader, conducts the services in Cotten on Tuesday nights and in Gray on Thursday nights.

These periods set aside for meditation and quiet music last for about 15 minutes. These services are three years old at Woman's college.

Mrs. Lois Suiter Is New Professor of Education

Mrs. Lois Suiter is the new professor of elementary education at Curry training school. Formerly a member of the faculty at Houston Teacher's college, Mrs. Suiter is filling the position left by Miss Ruth Fitzgerald who is on leave of absence.

Major L. P. McLendon to Be Speaker for Founder's Day

Group Passes New Dance Ruling

A new regulation for Saturday night dances requires each boy to pay five cents admission. Girls may attend free of charge as previously. This change was recommended to the social committee by the student-faculty pre-school conference.

The purposes of the rule are to provide money for playing the nickelodeon by distributing the expense among all of the boys, and to eliminate the pauses that formerly occurred between the records.

Playlikers Schedule 'Warrior's Husband' For October 26

Mrs. F. Fitz-Simmons Directs Cast of Thirty In Amazon Comedy

It's a woman's world—or at least will be on October 26, at 8 p.m., in Aycock auditorium, when Playlikers present "The Warrior's Husband," by Julian Thompson. In this comedy, women do the fighting and the ruling while the men take their place by the hearth. The author makes merry with the idea of feminine superiority with side-glances at the weaker natures of women when love walks in. As the plot goes, Greek warriors come to the Caucasian land of the heroines while on their way to besiege Troy. They delay their trip to help poor half-wit Hercules who has promised to steal the sacred girdle of the Amazon queen. An exciting comedy is the result.

Mrs. Foster Fitz-Simmons Directs

The play is under the technical direction of Mrs. Foster Fitz-Simmons and features a cast of many: Ann Pitonak as Princess Antiope; Petie Roberts, Queen of the Amazons; Mary Thorne Tyson as Pomposia; Mary Frances Cox, Herodotus; Phyllis Barker, Caustica; Marjorie Conklin, Boria; Peggy Levine, First Sergeant; Frances Cooke, Second Sergeant; Jane Gillett, First Sentry; Josephine Howard, Second Sentry; Margaret Barringer, Third Sentry; Virginia Lish, young Amazon; Anna Rosa, captain of the Archers; Joan Freehoff, Runner; Nancy Idol and Peggy Sholer, Nubian slaves; Marjorie Walter, Sally Curman, Maxine Meekins, Merle Swain, Dorothy Morrison.

(Continued on Page Four)

Woman's College Students Will Observe Forty-Eighth Anniversary of Founding Of School by Dr. Charles D. McIver

MAJ. L. P. McLENDON

On Saturday, October 5, 1940, the students and faculty of Woman's college will turn back the pages of history to October 5, 1892, when the State Normal and Industrial school was founded by Dr. Charles Duncan McIver. Major L. P. McLendon, Greensboro attorney, and member of the board of trustees of Woman's college, will deliver the principal address at 11:15 a.m. in Aycock auditorium. Previous to the chapel exercises, Dr. W. C. Jackson, dean of administration, will lead a small group in a service to be held at the grave of Dr. McIver.

Mr. A. C. Hall to Preside

Mr. A. C. Hall, of the English department, is chairman of the committee for arranging the program and will preside. The singing of "America" will open the exercises, and will be followed by the invocation given by Rev. H. Murphy Williams, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant. Dr. Jackson will read the 13th chapter of First Corinthians, the favorite Bible passage of Dr. McIver, founder and first president of Woman's college.

Alumnae President to Speak

Mrs. C. F. Tomlinson, president of the Alumnae association, will make a short talk in which she will introduce the honor guests. Guests to be seated on the stage are Mrs. Charles D. McIver, wife of the founder; Dr. Julius I. Foust, second president of the college, now president emeritus; Dr. Frank Porter Graham, president of the Greater University of North Carolina; Dr. Anna Gove, and Miss Mary Petty, both members of the original college faculty; and Miss Minnie Jamison, a student of the college in its first year. Mr. E. J. Forney, an original member of the faculty and now treasurer of the college, will not be present because of illness.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Tomlinson will introduce Miss Clara Byrd, Alumnae secretary, who will read the "In Memoriam," which has become as traditional as the wearing of white dresses.

Special music will be provided by the college choir, and the program will be concluded with the singing of the college song by the entire student body and faculty.

Junior Class to Give Informal Reception

Students Entertain in Honor Of Dr. and Mrs. Ely Lyman At Open House, October 5

All members of the student body, their dates, and the faculty of Woman's college are invited to be the guests of the junior class at an informal reception and open house in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Ely Lyman on Saturday, October 5, from 8:30 to 10:30 p. m. in the Religious Activities center.

Students and faculty will personally meet Mrs. Lyman who will speak at the year's first University sermon; October 6, at 11 a. m. in Aycock auditorium. Mrs. Lyman, dean of students at Sweet Briar college and former instructor at Vassar, will lead several discussion groups.

Margaret Ramseur and Hilda Renegar are co-chairmen for the occasion.

Legislature Approves New Walking Regulation

At the Legislature meeting held Thursday night, a new regulation regarding walking on campus with dates was passed. The time was changed from 30 minutes to an hour and a half, with the understanding that students were responsible for "getting in" on campus checks.

The new regulation was announced in house meetings this week and has already gone into effect. Annie Braswell, vice-president of Student government, presided at the Legislature meeting.

Freshmen Endure Severe Initiation Punishments

Newest Members of Campus Societies Are 'Clowns for a Day'

On Monday, September 30, the freshmen of Woman's college were initiated into the four societies of the school—Adelphean, Aletheian, Cornelian, and Dikean.

Bright and early, girls poured forth in brilliant colors—red, green, yellow, blue—with towels draped about them, a la Lamour, and with pillow-cases filled with books slung over their shoulders. Myriads of matching hair-bows bobbed down Walker avenue, and teachers received strange greetings as they made their entrance into the classrooms.

Quare Doings

After class, there were queer doings and peculiar sights. One heard a shout, "Cornelian! Praise Allah!" Immediately, a girl in blue dropped her books and sank to the ground in a deep kowtow before her superior, then lifted her arms on high.

I'm a Fool!

Suddenly, a streak of yellow precipitated past, shouting, "I'm a fool! I'm a fool!" Three girls in green walked by nonchalantly with their fingers on the end of their noses. Behind them came a sophomore, directing: "Now do

(Continued on Page Four)

Superlative Election Is 38 Year-Old Custom

Since 1902, when the first Pine Needles was published, the students of this school have been choosing superlatives to constitute the feature section of the annual.

Until 1934 the superlatives were chosen from the student body and were presented in the Pine Needles with descriptive words such as "culture," "charm," "grace," "originality," "versatility," "beauty," "wisdom," and "innocence." The lucky girls were posed with various objects which suggested further the quality each represented. The girl chosen for wisdom posed with a stuffed owl. The girl chosen for innocence posed with her eyes downcast and her arms filled with a basket of white roses.

In 1934, however, the feature section of the Pine Needles was not composed of superlatives but of the eight outstanding members of the senior class as chosen by the members of the class. These eight girls were selected not on the basis of beauty, wisdom, nor culture, but on the basis of leadership, capability, and service during their four years at Woman's college.

Tomorrow: Students Will Pay Tribute To Charles Duncan Melver

There is a bronze tall man standing on a block of pink North Carolina granite in front of Melver class building here at Woman's college. He stands in the October sunshine with his right foot forward, and there is a bronze book in his left hand . . .

Charles Duncan Melver
Educational Statesman
Born 27th September, 1860
Died 17th September, 1906

A plaque on the pink granite tells us his name. It is a Scotch name, a sturdy name. This man died in the prime of life. He spent his life well, and he made the lives of others full and fruitful. His nose is large and his forehead is broad and his statue eyes and lips are alive and kindly . . .

Names: "A" and "B" Halls Should Be Christened This Fall

You will agree with us on one thing, we are sure. You'll agree when we say that "A" and "B" halls are handsome buildings—beautiful setting, architecture, furnishings and all that sort of thing. Women who love Woman's college are darn proud of those two halls.

You will agree with us when we say that those halls should have names. A concrete name increases the handsomeness of any hall, we say. We do not know why the new halls have not been named, but THE CAROLINIAN is willing to help organize a student committee to collaborate with the college's Ad-

Founder and First President
Of the State Normal
and
Industrial College
For Women

This is the founder of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. This is the man who said: "People—not rocks and rivers and imaginary boundary lines—make a state; and the state is great just in proportion as its people are educated." He believed in North Carolina women. He carved a college for them.

Tomorrow, October 5, Woman's college will celebrate its forty-eighth year of life. Tomorrow is called Founder's day. We will pay honor to you, Charles Duncan Melver.

ministration in christening the new halls this fall.

THE CAROLINIAN will print any name suggestions that students might submit. If anyone has any thoughts or opinions on this subject, please contact the editor of THE CAROLINIAN.

Sometimes we suspect that student thought and opinion on such subjects are completely entombed in a monotonous mental activity of males-bridge-food-movies-chatter-males - and "just enough studying to get by." This editorial will probably go the way of all CAROLINIAN editorials—no way.

Pop! The Carolinian Explodes False Theory About Playlikers

Last week THE CAROLINIAN said that this year it was going to do a bit of crusading in its editorials. Along with this crusading THE CAROLINIAN also wants to explode a few false theories and ideas on campus. Number one on the list is the attitude taken toward the Playlikers.

As you all know, Playlikers is the college dramatic society which is open to all members of the student body who have a yen to do their part in making the productions at Aycock a big success. In past years there has been a general feeling that in order to be able to do any work down at the auditorium you have to be a super-showman or a theatrical prodigy. Right here and now, we want to blast that theory into small pieces — the smallest ones possible. Playlikers wants every one who is at all interested to come down and work. Don't feel that you have to be an actress. If you're afraid of that "butterfly" feeling in your stomach the minute you even step on a stage, don't let that keep you away. There's always plenty of backstage work to be done, and the more hands to do it, the better it is.

Right now work is beginning on THE WARRIOR'S HUSBAND which is to be given October 26, so you have a chance to get in on the start of things. Give expression to that inner longing you've always had to be an actress or to work on a play. Playlikers need you. Let's help them make this the biggest and best season yet. J. C. O.

Notice!

If you are trying out for THE CAROLINIAN, your third assignment story will be the determining factor in deciding whether or not you will be a member of the staff for this year. Make every effort to meet your deadline, read the style book, and make this story your best. If your name appears in the mast head of the next issue of the paper, it will mean that you are a member of the staff.

THE CAROLINIAN

Published Weekly During the Collegiate Year by the Student Government, Association of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

First published May 19, 1919. Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice in Greensboro, North Carolina, October 1, 1929, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Member
Associated Collegiate Press
Distributor of Collegiate Digest

REPRESENTED FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY National Advertising Service, Inc.
College Publishers Representative
420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y.
CHICAGO - BOSTON - LOS ANGELES - SAN FRANCISCO

Subscription Rate: for the collegiate year, $1.50, to students; $2.00 to the public.

Editor-in-Chief PERCY DEAN
Business Manager Mary Cockfield
Managing Editor Frances Newsom
Associate Editors Christine Allen, Jennie Brunt, Margaret Van Hoy
Advertising Manager Mae Duckworth

Editorial Board: Helen Sweet, Jane O'Connor, Jane Gillett, Helen Tanner. Sports Editors: Nella Allen, Ruth Porter. Head Writers: Elizabeth Wood, Peggy Lincoln, Betsy Smith, Betty Baker, Maude Middleton, Pauline Abernethy. Cartoonists: Jean Church, Betsy Sanders. Exchange Managers: Nancy Winchell, Patte Woolley. Circulation Managers: Muriel Craig, Carolyn Dillard. Reporters: Martha Register, Alla Rommel, Jean Herbert, Polly Creech, Margaret Tucker, Doris Ayers, Elizabeth Newton, Doris Bierman, Elizabeth Rogers, Betty Hopkins, Martha Williams, Dorothy Morrison, Louise Bonaman, Virginia Daugherty. Business Staff: Mary Frances Cox, Frances Cockerham, Marielle Guin, Marjorie Foster, Helen Sherwin, Ruth House, Frances Horton, Maxine Moore, Jane O'Connor, Frances Little, Bobette Kelly, Frances Bailey, Thora Ross, Kathryn Little, Menefee Bennett, and Carolyn Coker.

GOOD STUFF

Editor's Note: THE CAROLINIAN reprints this from the Food and National Defense issue of "Consumer's Guide," September, 1940. "Consumer's Guide" is a publication of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., prepared by the Consumers' Counsel division of that department. A total of 150,000 copies are available for official free distribution. Additional copies may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., at 5 cents a copy.

We have a job to do. You, and I, and everyone. Our job is this: To make America strong.

We have our lands to hold, our waters to protect, our skies to guard. We have these, but we have more. We have people.

We are rich in people. People who love and cherish our lands. People who know how and want to work. People who have deep faith that here we have the greatest chance for life, and liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. People who know the fight for these is never won until it is won for everybody.

Defense is planes and guns. It is equipping an army to man our military weapons. It is this, and more. It is building the health, the physical fitness, the social well-being of all our people, and doing it in the democratic way. Hungry people, undernourished people, ill people, do not make for strong defense.

This, then, is our job, not all of it, but a vital part: Let us make every American strong, stronger than ever before, sturdier in body, steadier in nerves, surer in living.

Signed,
HARRIET ELLIOTT,
Consumer Commissioner, National Defense Advisory Commission.

over the transom

In pecking over the transom this week, we found only the incessant clicking of knitting needles and it was difficult for our inexperienced ears to separate the clicking of the teeth from the clicking of the needles. . . . But . . . we thought you all would like to know that it is safe for Kit Calvert to go back to Shelby now that specs can be mended for two bits—'nough said. . . . It's usually the cheerleaders' place to do the yelling, but it seems one at U. N. C. got yelled at for a change—for further details consult Terry Moore. . . . Seen at that sad, sad occasion at Chapel Hill last Saturday—Ellen Self being shocked at Eppie's undignified yelling. . . . Norma Etheridge and her K. E. . . . Emily Harris and a blond stranger. . . . Lib Phillips, '40, and her Bill—not to mention four busloads of other W. C. girls. . . . Frances Henning is getting fan mail from Mr. Bragg. However, not on her own laurels. . . . The little man had seen Bunny Cross' picture and thought it was Frances—how 'bout that? . . . And why does Rusty's face become as red as her hair at the mention of a certain Dick? . . . Isn't Murphy acting a little "Goofy" these days? . . . Rumor has it that some humor magazine in Chapel Hill has been discontinued—but, of course—you girls wouldn't be interested in filth like that. . . . Could it be love that brings a swain 800 miles to surprise Jane Cook? . . . Betty Smith of "B" is casting glances at a Phil Delt—it seems she likes the way he starts every sentence with, "We-e-e-l-l." . . . Amusing incident of the week: Marion Okell, Miss Okell to you, gathering up all her courage and dignity to paddle an impudent student and losing both upon finding herself locked in the office with the culprit. . . . It seems Helen Sweet is very interested in the Greensboro Weather bureau these days. Fair or stormy, "Sweetie"? . . . We-e-e-l-l, as Bunny Cross says, "for the birds."

Quotable Quotes

"Only free men can carry on a democracy, and men who do not have economic security and power are not free. Neither are those free who are not educated to the limit of their abilities, or whose education has been purposely made narrow or one-sided, or, worst of all, who have been deliberately taught that which is not true. That sort of thing is conditioning, which is only a part of the process of education, and it may serve well enough for a totalitarian state governed by a 'leader' for his own megalomaniac ends. A democracy must forever guard against letting itself be strangled by leaders with few or limited ideals." Dr. Louis C. Jody, professor of chemistry in Brothers college of liberal arts, Drew university, warns that each generation must not fail to pass on to the succeeding generation the hard-won fruits of its experience.

"All this super-organization which has developed in the past few years is bound to collapse soon or later under its own weight. I can't see any advantage in having all these leagues, one for every sport. What it amounts to is that instead of our arranging our own schedule as we see fit we are told by the central office in New York whom we will play and when. It takes the thing out of our hands and about all that we get out of it is some unnecessary, and usually undesirable, publicity." Dr. Clarence W. Mendell, Yale's new athletic boss, takes a powerful poke at the "league instinct" in college athletics.—A.C.P.

Campus Camera

WEEK'S TIDE

By CAROL PHILLIPS

The "new world order" is seen this week as a possible reality. The wars of two hemispheres are wars of unity. After Mussolini-Von Ribbentrop conversations of a fortnight ago, the perfection of the Axis threat was visible to the world. Last week, Japan joined the Axis.

Organized power will be asserted against any nation attacking Axis interests. The pact provides that Asia is the sphere of Japan and that Europe is the sphere of Germany and Italy. Three is not a crowd. It is the consummation of a disastrous pattern.

And What of Spain?

Spain's path of action is not revealed. It is intimated that she would like to be dealt in on the game of relieving Africa of British hegemony. Franco can be useful to the Axis in a passive status. By threatening British hegemony in the Mediterranean, Spain can be a definite drain on English energy.

Successful English Air Raids

England happily reports successful counter-attacks by the R. A. F. Because Germany's synthetic and regular oil refineries in Berlin have been bombed, decisive action in the Near East is speeded. Iraq oil fields are Axis targets. The pipe lines of these rich fields terminate near British air-bases at Haifa.

Surprise at Dakar

In Africa at the port of Dakar, the Vichy government exerted its influence. British war vessels manned by English-French crews were fired upon by French soldiers on shore.

Uncle Sam Reprimands

The United States continued to reprimand Japan for its methods of invasion of French Indo-China. The objection will take a concrete form on October 16. On this day all exports of scrap iron and steel to Japan will cease. Twenty-five million dollars is being loaned to China by the United States. Coincidentally, October 16 is the day of the national lottery in U. S. All men between 21-35 will register for conscription.

And What of America?

What will be the position of America in the coming months? Alaska is a bomb's throw from Asia. Dakar is the African port nearest South America. Our Monroe Doctrine is ineffectual as defense for us if we violate it by interfering economically in "purely European wars." The status quo of the United States will be violently shaken if our enemies occupy the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

WELSH RARE-BITS

By BETTY WELSH

Twilight no longer dreams. It drops suddenly like a gray curtain rung down at the end of the third act, and glowing maples flaunt their brilliance before their more modest sisters end still in fading summer greens. But the air is fresh and crisp, and girls stride about campus with a springier step and brighter cheeks. Hail October! At last we feel like football.

Fire! Fire!

This is not strictly a news column, and this is not strictly news, but have you heard about the unfortunate transfer who turned in a fire alarm in Spencer? As whispered in my attentive ear, it seems the dastardly deed was unintentional. She was merely kidding around, but the glass, not being of the shatter-proof variety, did as glass often does—it broke. Innumerable fire trucks and ambulances panted over with full siren accompaniment, and Spencer lassies with preciousst belongings clutched to their bosoms rushed helter-skelter, but the most whimsical part of the whole mad business was Dr. Jackson standing by with a ruler poked in the little gadget to silence its strident alarms. It tickles the funny-bone, but pity the poor transfer.

Mrs. Roosevelt's Day

Mrs. Roosevelt once again makes all normally busy people look like pikers with an account of her "Twenty-Four Hours." She says the secret of being busy and not appearing to be so lies in not allowing yourself to feel hurried. She says that "much of the wear and tear of being busy is the anticipation of the next thing to be done." In order to avoid this, all you have to do is learn control while young, know the value of work, and never indulge in self-pity or unnecessary fears. See how simple it is?

Required Reading

Mrs. Louis Untermeyer, wife of the poet, literary critic, and author, tells this one on him:

"We went to a costume party one night. Louis was looking his silliest in a paper hat, tooting a horn for nobody's particular benefit, when a young college girl walked up to him, looked him up and down scornfully, and turned on her heel with: 'Huh! And you're Required Reading!'"

Wanta New Crack?

Crack of the week: "Hush, you obnoxious me!" Coined words intrigue me if they're apt, and this one is. Credit goes to Amy Vaughan, Dr. Bunting's youngest. She combines practically and nearly to get "practically," which is practically darn perfect.

Plug for Manuel's

Have you ever tried Manuel's for Sunday dinner? You get your choice of desert, but instead of staring at an impersonal menu and trying to make up your mind at desert-time, the waiter brings a tray with each kind to your table, and you merely point (if you're impolite) to the kind that is most appealing. It pleased me immensely.

Would that I had words of wisdom to offer once again, but all I can say is adieu for the nonce, and for heaven's sake don't let your book reports pile up.

"Jolting John" Polanski, Demon Deacon halfback from Wake Forest, gets a pointer from backfield coach, E. R. Walker.

Special Bus to Take Students to Games

Mrs. Betty Jester, manager of the book store, announces that the book store can charter a bus to any of the football games, provided as many as 25 students wish to go. Student tickets to the Carolina games can usually be had for a dollar, the Duke-Carolina game being excepted.

Fall Tennis Tournament Begins September 30

Play in the fall tennis tournament began Monday, September 30. There were 46 single players and 30 doubles players signed up to play. Allowing for the repetition of players in both singles and doubles, about 70 girls are playing, which establishes something of a record.

Courts can be reserved for only one hour in succession and no more than 24 hours in advance. If a contestant reserves the court, she has preference of the court.

Professor J. C. Holbert of Iowa State college is secretary of the Iowa Hereford Breeders association.

Speaking of Sports

By "COCOA" LITCHFIELD

Well, gals, how are your dispositions? Are you sweet-tempered or are you still stewing about the Carolina-Wake Forest game last week-end? I'm just dying to explode, so here goes: First I pull a ten-to-one chance on William and Mary to beat State in their opener, and State comes through with flying colors. Then I pick Carolina favorite over Wake Forest and the Deacons pull the football surprise of the ages and down the Tar Heels 12-0. The one way I console myself is in knowing that I picked those teams along with some of the South's finest football authorities.

Carolina-Wake Forest

In spite of the surprise element, it was a fine game and one that will be football history. The thing was convincing all the way through. There were Pruitt's passes, Gallovich's reverses, Polanski's hammering at the line, and some of the finest tackle plays any coach could desire. These tackle plays were made by one Pat Preston, the Deacons' left tackle—and he is a linesman! At no time could Carolina's running attack function, and only once, just before the end of the first half, did the Tar Heels get anywhere near pay dirt. At that time an aerial attack, for which Carolina is famed, completely mired down. All through the game "Penhead" Walker took it easy and watched his boys play. When it was all over he uncrossed his legs and "lowed as how Pruitt, Gallovich, and Polanski had done nobly. Ray is quoted as saying, "We were completely outplayed by a better ball club. We have no alibis." He mentioned the three Wake Forest players who starred, as well as praising sophomore Pecora, All-American end, Paul Severin, and center Carl Sunthelmer, for their play in the Carolina attack.

I refuse to stick my neck out again, so I'll just sit back and bite my nails about State and Clemson in Charlotte, and Furman and the Deacons in Wake Forest this week-end.

State-Davidson Chatter

The Wolfpack took its second win of the season last Saturday, when it slated Davidson for the Southern Conference booby prize with a score of 34-0. It was State's game after the Carolina co-captains Gates Kimball, tackle, and Paul Severin, All-American end last year, look like healthy guys to us.

Dolphins Will Have Tryouts Thursday

Dolphin club tryouts will be held Thursday, October 7, at 12:15. All girls interested in joining please report at the pool. Don't forget to have the foot examination first.

Football Games To Be Broadcast

Oct. 5, Tennessee vs. Duke—WBIG, WTB, WDBO, WDNC, WJAX, WPTF.
Oct. 12, Wake Forest vs. Clemson—WFBC.
Oct. 19, Colgate vs. Duke—WBIG, WBT, WDNC, WFBC, WGY, WPTF, WSYR.
Oct. 26, Wake Forest vs. Duke—WBIG, WBT, WDNC, WPTF.
Nov. 2, Duke vs. Georgia Tech—WBIG, WBT, WDBO, WDBO, WDNC, WJAX, WPTF, WSB, WRDW, WRVA, WSAV.
Nov. 9, Duke vs. Davidson—WBIG, WBT, WDNC, WPTF.
Nov. 23, State vs. Duke—WBIG, WBT, WDNC.
Nov. 30, Duke vs. Pittsburgh—WBIG, WBT, WCAE, WDBO, WDNC, WFBC, WPTF, WLEU, WPTF, WRVA, WTBO.

Sports Writers Survey Football Prospects for Week-End Tilts

Dance Group Selects Eight New Members

Nineteen Girls Form Junior Division; Former Members Comprise Senior Group

The Dance group, under the direction of Miss Jean Brownlee, held its fall tryouts in the Rosenthal gymnasium Thursday and Friday evenings, September 26 and 27.

Members of the tryout committee were Edith Goodman, president; Margaret Ann Bittick, Peggy Levine, Sarah Fleet, Joan Blumenthal, and Cocoa Litchfield.

Aside from those girls chosen last spring, the tryout committee selected eight more girls this fall making a total of 19 girls in the Junior Dance group. They are: Anna Bell, Alice Calder, Lib Cameron, Imogene Cashion, Martha Charnock, Betty Lou Howser, Barbara Johnson, Marguerite Laughridge, Dorothy McDuffie, Annie Mae Parrish, Betty Pressly, Silvey Ann Presson, Gerry Rogers, Lou Ryan, Helen Tanner, Frances Templeton, Eloise Thomas, Lora Walters, and Alice Wilson.

The Junior Dance group will meet every Tuesday at 5 p. m. The Senior Dance group, consisting of former members, will meet every Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Evidence that human beings witnessed formation of Crater Lake thousands of years ago is under study by University of Oregon scientists.

Duke, Wake Forest Lead in U. S. Rankings Of North Carolina Teams; Games Promise Thrills, Chills, Spills for Spectators

By NETTA ALLEN and RUTH PORTER

This week-end down here in Dixie, where football teams am football teams, the Big Five of North Carolina will stage a rip-roarin' demonstration of top-notch football complete with thrills, chills, and spills. Competition will be keen and upsets will be rampant. In this year anything can happen, and it can happen here.

In Knoxville, Tennessee, the nation's number one game, Duke-Tennessee, will be played. Duke, the best bet of the southern conference, will tangle with the Vols of Tennessee, who are slated to be the champs of the southeastern conference. Some say that this game will decide who will trek to the Rose Bowl in January.

Even though ol' man charley-horse has probably incapacitated Jap Davis, one of Duke's ace backfield men, for the Blue Devil-Vol game, the Blue Devil reserves will be Johnny-on-the-spot as they were for the V. M. I. game last Saturday. A snappy aerial attack will, by all reports, prevail the entire game.

The number one game of the Big Five will be the Carolina-Davidson game in Bowman Gray Memorial stadium at Winston-Salem. Last year this game drew a crowd of 10,000 fans and gives promise of being a very interesting game this year. This will be a contest between two teams still smarting from last Saturday's defeats. The Wildcats were not at all pleased at the way State's Wolf Pack ran up a 34-0 score last Saturday, and Carolina, still jolted by the 12-0 loss to Wake Forest last Saturday, will be rarin' to go to retain its precious standing as a top team of the South.

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Speaking of Wake Forest, those Demon Deacons who really turned the Tar Heel tables last Saturday, will tackle Furman tomorrow in the sparkling new stadium, the pride of Wake Forest college. Les Cansler, sports editor of "Old Gold and Black," says that the experts have picked Wake Forest to continue its spotless record against Furman. He says the reason for the Deacons' baffling battling team goes back to 1937 when Wake Forest was pushed around by all the football teams, big and little. That year, students, professors, and alumni realized that football was essential. Les says that during 1938-1939 they have been concentrating on football, and today, in 1940, they have developed into one of the nation's most talked-of teams. He is proud to state that "for the first time in 13 years they came, saw, and completely conquered the Tar Heels from Carolina." Les is very happy over the situation. He says, "It's just too good to be true. It's the kind of thing you read about in books—the unbelievable thing that just doesn't happen to small schools like our Wake Forest."

Yay, Wolfpack! Here are State co-captains Pat Fehley, back, and Howell Stroup, center, grinning from left to right.

Big Five Announce Fall Football Schedule

Oct. 5—N. C. State vs. Clemson at Charlotte.
North Carolina vs. Davidson at Winston-Salem.
Wake Forest vs. Furman at Wake Forest.
Duke vs. Tennessee at Knoxville.
Oct. 12—Davidson vs. V. M. I. at Charlotte.
Wake Forest vs. Clemson at Clemson.
North Carolina vs. T. C. U. at Chapel Hill.
Oct. 19—North Carolina vs. N. C. State at Raleigh.
Duke vs. Colgate at Hamilton.
Wake Forest vs. Marshall at Wake Forest.
Davidson vs. Sewanee at Davidson.
Oct. 26—N. C. State vs. Mississippi State at Raleigh.
North Carolina vs. Tulane at Chapel Hill.
Duke vs. Wake Forest at Wake Forest.
Davidson vs. Furman at Greenville.
Nov. 1—Wake Forest vs. George Washington at Washington.
Nov. 2—Davidson vs. Centre at Davidson.
Duke vs. Georgia Tech at Durham.
North Carolina vs. Fordham at New York.
N. C. State vs. Furman at Raleigh.
Nov. 9—Wake Forest vs. N. C. State at Raleigh.
Davidson vs. Duke at Durham.
North Carolina vs. Richmond at Richmond.

Wildcats Bob Johnson, guard and Claude Hackney, back, have that "Davidson-will-down-them" look.

Here is "Amazing Mike" Karmazin, tackle, rarin' to go for Duke's Blue Devils.

Nov. 16—Wake Forest vs. Texas Tech at Lubbock.
N. C. State vs. The Citadel at Charleston.
Davidson vs. Hampden-Sydney at Davidson.
North Carolina vs. Duke at Chapel Hill.
Nov. 23—N. C. State vs. Duke at Durham.
Virginia vs. North Carolina at Charlottesville.
Nov. 28—Wake Forest vs. South Carolina at Charlotte.
Davidson vs. The Citadel at Wilmington.
Nov. 30—Duke vs. Pittsburgh at Durham.

University of Illinois Alumni News reports 85 to 90 per cent of 1940 graduates are employed in work of their choice.

State-Clemson Tilt Tomorrow

In Charlotte tomorrow State, with all its players in tip-top condition, will try to avenge the 25-6 defeat of last year by the Clemson Tigers. Although Coach Newton is minus his last year's starring quartet, he has developed a crack 1940 team that his already defeated William and Mary and Davidson by decisive scores.

National Ratings

All of the Big Five seem to have real teams this year. They are given a high national rating by the Williams National Rating system, which rates the strength of teams in relation to

(Continued on Page Four)

Vogue Begins Annual Career Contest Open To College Seniors

Winner Will Receive Position on Fashion Staff of Magazine

The Sixth Prix de Paris, "Vogue's" annual career contest for college seniors, was announced by the editor of "Vogue" magazine, September 30.

Each entrant must fill out an entrance blank and mail it to "Vogue" not later than November 20. The contest will consist of two parts, a series of four quizzes and a thesis, which only those entrants who receive passing marks on the quizzes are eligible to submit. The quizzes will appear in the issues of "Vogue" on the first of each month beginning with November. Answers must be mailed on or before the 20th of the month.

This year, "Vogue's" Prix de Paris contest offers seven major awards. First prize is a year's position on "Vogue's" fashion staff in the New York office. Second prize is six months as a feature writer on "Vogue's" staff. In addition, five cash prizes will be awarded for the best contest theses. Honorable mention winners will be interviewed for jobs by stores, advertising agencies, and publications.

"Our purpose in sponsoring the Prix de Paris contest," said Mrs. Edna Woolman Chase, editor, "is to discover college girls who have the ability to write and a flair for fashion. It offers a training in fashion reporting and feature writing."

Reception Honors New Additions to Faculty

In order to honor the 17 new members of the faculty, a reception is being given tonight from 8 to 10 o'clock in the Alumnae house, with the entire teaching staff of Woman's college invited.

Receiving at the front door will be Dr. George Anselm, principal of Curry school, and Mrs. Anselm, while Mrs. James Painter, professor of English, will present guests to Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson; Miss Harriet Elliott, dean of women; Miss Minnie Jamison, social director; Dr. Gove, retired college physician; and Miss Mary Petty, social chairman of school.

Sports Writers Survey Football Prospects for Week-End Tilts

(Continued from Page Three)

their scheduled opponents. Of the 234 teams rated, the Big Five are in the upper third. Duke has a rating of 98.6, the highest in the nation at present. Wake Forest has the next highest of the Big Five, its rating being 94.2. State comes next with 91.9, Carolina with 87.5, and Davidson with 82.4. From this it looks as though all the Big Five will win the majority of their games and perhaps send an eleven to the Rose Bowl.

Five Hundred Girls Work at W. C. U. N. C.

(Continued from Page One)

proved to be the most unusual job of all is that held by some girl who acts as subject for experimentation for science classes. This was done last year and will probably continue this year.

Expert — Reasonable
Watch Repairing
Crystals 25c

Bernau Jewelry &
Optical Co.
210 S. Greene St.

Friday & Saturday
Robert Young
Maureen O'Sullivan
Lewis Stone
In

"Sporting Blood"

Monday & Tuesday
John Garfield
Francis Farmer
Pat O'Brien
In

"Flowing Gold"

Wednesday & Thursday
Herbert Marshall
Fay Bainter
In

"BILL OF DIVorcEMENT"

NATIONAL
A NORTH CAROLINA THEATRE
TELEPHONE 2945

Dr. Mary Ely Lyman Will Deliver First University Sermon of Year

Seniors Choose Eight Outstanding Members From Class of 1940

(Continued from Page One)

"Y" council, and has been on the honor roll for two years.

Madame Editor Dean

Peggy Dean is editor of THE CAROLINIAN. In her sophomore and junior years, she was a CAROLINIAN reporter and an associate editor. She has been a member of the student legislature and sophomore jacket chairman. Peggy is an English major.

"Y" President Johnson

Bess Johnson is president of the Y. W. C. A. She is a member of the Inter-Faith council, Playmakers, and Masqueraders. Bess was a junior-senior formal dance chairman, a marshal, daisy chain chairman, a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, treasurer of the freshman class. She has been in the College choir, was on the honor roll last year, and has been active in sports. Sociology is Bess's major.

Frances Daniel

Frances Daniel is house president in Mary Foust hall. Last year she was president of the junior class, marshal, and on the honor roll. Frances has been vice-president of the freshman class and has participated in sports. She is majoring in psychology.

Eleanor Echols Mills was secretary of Student Government association last year. She was a member of the freshman commission and of the freshman "Y" council. Eleanor was president of the sophomore class, and a member of the town students' judicial board. Her name appeared in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. She is a sociology major.

Chief Marshal Paschal

Julia Paschal is majoring in grammar grade education. She is Chief marshal. Last year she was a marshal, and chairman of the junior formal. Her name was listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Elizabeth "Bess" Falls

Elizabeth Falls is president of the senior class. She has been vice-president of the junior class, a member of the legislature, a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, and a member of the finance board. She is a Home Economics major.

Flynt Studios

Makers of
FINE MINIATURES, COPIES
AND PORTRAITS
228 W. Market St. Greensboro

Make Saslow's your headquarters for guaranteed nationally advertised watches, diamonds, silverware and jewelry.
SASLOW'S
Greensboro's Largest Credit Jewelers
214 S. Elm St.

NEW YORK'S
MOST EXCLUSIVE
HOTEL RESIDENCE
FOR YOUNG WOMEN

College girls and budding careerists find The Barbizon Mode of Living stimulates greater achievement. Its socially correct address and environment, its cultural advantages are conducive to success. Home of college clubs. Daily recitals and lectures, music studios with Steinway grands. Library, art studios and gallery, sun deck, terraces, squash courts and swimming pool. Convenient to business centers, fashionable shops, museums and theatres.

700 rooms each with a radio.
Tariff: from $2.50 per day
from $12 per week

Write for descriptive booklet C

The Barbizon
LEXINGTON AVE. at 63rd ST.
NEW YORK CITY

Junior Class Will Sponsor Service, Hold Open House for Faculty, Students; Visitors Will Tour Campus at 4 P. M. Saturday

With Dr. Mary Ely Lyman, dean of students at Sweet Briar college, as the first speaker on the program, the University sermon series will open under the sponsorship of the junior class on Sunday, October 6, at 11 a. m. in Aycock auditorium.

Dr. Lyman will speak on "The Fullness of Life." This is her first year at Sweet Briar college, and before becoming dean, she was professor of religion at Vassar, lecturer in English Bible at Union Theological seminary, and associate in Religion at Barnard college. Aside from her position as director of students, she is a professor of Religion at Sweet Briar.

Dr. Lyman's Interests

Student Y. W. C. A. work has long been a source of interest for Dr. Lyman, as she has taught at numerous conferences. She was a delegate, in 1924, for the students of America to the World Student Christian Federation in England; and she has served as a member of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A. Dr. Lyman graduated from Mount Holyoke college, where she was later honored with a degree of L.L.D. For further study at Union Theological seminary, she received a degree of B.D.; and, in addition, she received the degree of Ph.D. from the University of Chicago.

Throughout the program, the college choir and Mr. George M. Thompson, director of the choir and head of the organ department, will present several musical selections.

Dr. Jackson Will Lead Program

Leading the program are: Dr. W. C. Jackson, dean of administration; Miss Helen Boyd, director of Religious activities; Polly Sattler, Catherine Hilderman, Catherine Warren, Julia Davis, and Lena Coble Brown.

On Saturday, October 5, from 4 p. m. until 8:30 p. m., Dr. Lyman will be taken on a tour of the campus. After the tour, an open house will be held in the Religious Activities center from 8:30 p. m. to 10:30 p. m., which will be open to all faculty and students. In charge of the informal fireside program are Miss Hazel R. Clark, Miss Emily H. Watkins, Hilda Renegar, and Margaret Ramsaur.

Following the sermon on Sunday morning, October 6, Dr. Lyman is to be the guest at dinner of the Inter-Faith council.

University Sermon Speakers

Other speakers for the four sermons, which are held each year at the college will be: Rabbi Abraham J. Feldman, of the Congregation of Beth Israel, West Hartford, Conn., who will speak on December 1; Dr. Theodore O. Wedel, Canon chancellor, Washington Cathedral, Mount St. Alban, Washington, D. C., scheduled for February 16; and the Rev. T. B. Cowan, Norris Religious Fellowship, Norris, Tennessee, April 20.

Compliments

of
WOOLWORTH'S

Delicious Sandwiches and Drinks

Carolina Pharmacy
The Complete Drug Store
Campus Delivery Phone 8197

CRITERION

MONDAY-TUESDAY
OCT. 7-8

"Home Across the Bay"

With

GEORGE RAFT
JOAN BENNETT
NEWS AND CARTOON

Open 11 A. M.

Matinee 15c Night 20c

Speed and Beauty
Depend on Muscle

DRINK

GUILFORD DAIRY MILK

Visit Our Retail Store Often
Large Frosted Milk Shakes—10c
1700 West Lee Street

MEET YOUR FRIENDS

At

BELK'S

Ladies' Lounge
Mezzanine
Coca-Cola Machine
Free Telephones

BELK'S

JEFFERSON SQUARE

Playmakers Schedule 'Warrior's Husband' for October 16

(Continued from Page One)

Betty Dahlin, Sara Ramseur, soldiers. Among the men playing are Robert Umbach, William Burton, Howard Parrish, Jammie Wilkins, Carson Bain, Earl Warren, and Bill Little.

Students Head Committees

Costumes for the play will be designed by Mrs. Foster Fitz-Simmons. Oleen Norman, and Jenn Church. Mr. Wilbur Dorsett will be assisted in designing the sets by Jenn Church. Music will be arranged by Clara Roesch. Other technical advisers are: stage managers, Jenn Church and Alice Calder; assistant stage manager, Harriet Jones; production secretary, Jane O'Conner; business manager, Johanna Boet; costumes, Jeanne Owen; lights, Dorothy Johnson; properties, Eloise Taylor; make-up, Shirley Pillar and Rama Blackwood; publicity, Catherine Hilderman.

rooms and writing five love letters and—

"O.K.," answered the compassionate upperclassman, "you can go now. Turn around and crawl home."

DIXIE RADIO

600 N. Elm St.
GREENSBORO, N. C.
Phone 8826 Casey Jones

GREETING CARDS BOOKS

WILLS

Book & Stationery Co.
SCRAP BOOKS CIRCULATING LIBRARY

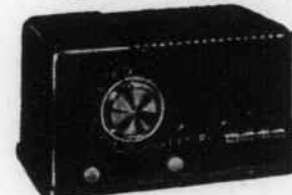

"We Know How"

Lucas Dry Cleaning Co.
1005 Spring Garden Phone 5805
Opposite Aycock Auditorium

Send Your Telegrams
By Western Union
Direct Telephone from
THE GRILL

PRINTED STATIONERY
RYTEX—CAMP HILL
NAME-ON
THE BOOK SHOP
123 S. Greene St.

Silvertone COMMENTATOR Radio
Greatest Power and Performance Under $14.95
Approved by America's Leading News Analysts!

$9.95

$2 Down — $2 Month
Usual Carrying Charge

Amazing new 5-tube Silvertone recommended by H. V. Kaltenborn and Lowell Thomas! Has 4 piano key "instantaneous" push buttons, and features of $14.95 sets! Exclusive third dimensional dial of clear plastic... with "luminescent" pointer. Heavy 4-inch dynamic speaker. Built-in radiometer... needs no aerial

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

227 N. Elm St. (Next to O. Henry Hotel)

"No foolin'... it makes you feel refreshed"

The popularity of Coca-Cola is assurance of its quality. Four generations of acceptance have made Coca-Cola known to all. You will like it, too. Pause and refresh yourself.

THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES

Bottled under authority of The Coca-Cola Co. by GREENSBORO COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

Founder . . .

... Dr. Charles Duncan McIver stands in bronze in front of McIver class building at Woman's college. Tomorrow, October 5, the college will celebrate its forty-eighth birthday.

Old College Janitor Serves Three School Presidents

Zeke Is One of Four Charter Members Of W. C. Staff

Short months after the doors of the old State Normal school were opened, October 5, 1892, Dr. Charles Duncan McIver, the first president, found himself in need of a good right hand man. A faculty he had, fifteen members, and all of them the best. A good student body he had, more than 200, which was appallingly large at the time. Two buildings graced the ten acres on the western edge of Greensboro, and education for the women of North Carolina was looking up.

The president of the new institution had horses, a handsome surry, and a handsome office, as offices went in those days, with oil lamps and a cheerful fire against the October chill that was already being felt in the air. But when Dr. McIver looked about for somebody to do everything that came to hand, he was worried. He had only a secretary and English teachers and mathematics teachers and Latin teachers and other learned instructors. He needed a good factotum.

Zeke Came From Peace

Back at Peace Institute in Raleigh Dr. McIver had left Ezekiel Robinson, a young colored man, who had served him while he was teaching there, and to him Dr. McIver sent an appeal to come where he could do his state the most good. A devoted friend to Dr. McIver, Ezekiel came, and in a few short weeks the confusion relevant to the opening of one of the major educational institutions of the state had subsided. Dr. McIver and Zeke were at the helm.

It was 49 years ago that the young colored man took up his duties as General Factotum at the State normal. Today Zeke is still at the helm, the dean of janitors at Woman's college, and one of the four charter members of the Woman's college staff still here. With Mr. E. J. Forney, treasurer of the college; Dr. Anna M. Gove, physician; Miss Mary Petty, former head of the chemistry department; Zeke will celebrate on October 5 the 48th anniversary of the opening of the college.

Janitor Met Dignitaries

With these three, Zeke has seen nearly half a century pass across the educational field of North Carolina. He has seen the old surry, in which he proudly drove Dr. McIver to meet such dignitaries as Theodore Roosevelt, Walter Hines Page, William Jennings Bryan, give way to the automobile, in which he later drove to meet Anna Howard Shaw, William E. Dodd, and others who visited the college in later years.

Zeke watched the old oil lamps in the Administration building, then called Main, give way to electricity. He saw running water brought into the buildings to replace the old pumps and wells. Zeke saw the outlying college "barns" give place to Students' building, now one of the older buildings at the center of the campus.

Zeke is one of the few who remember the call of fire, back in 1904, when Old Brick, first dormitory to be built on the campus burned to the ground in the small hours of a cold winter morning, leaving 300 girls in their night clothes, cold and frightened, but safe.

Helps Landscape Campus

It was Zeke who helped Mrs. McIver in her efforts to landscape the campus, and many buckets of water the two of them carried to the struggling young trees they dotted about on the 10 red acres. Every morning for these 46 years Zeke has brought the mail to the president's office. He has brought it to three of them, Dr. McIver, Dr. Foust, and Dr. Jackson. He has seen that their fires were lighted, and later that their radiators were warm. He has seen that they had their overcoats and their umbrellas. He has seen that they caught trains and buses. He has seen to it that they kept appointments, that they got home to lunch, that they opened meetings and laid cornerstones. He has taken the young McIvers, straying from the parental roof, back to their mother, and he has kept an eye on the two little Fousts when they played on the campus.

Never Forgets Faces

He has seen thousands of girls come in at the railway station, and in the early days he drove Dr. McIver to meet them. He has seen thousands of them march across the campus in their

Societies Hold Formal Initiation Ceremonies For New Members

Secret Rituals Conclude Activities of Eventful Week for Students

The Cornellian society held the first of the formal society initiations Monday night at 8:30 o'clock in Cornell hall. Elizabeth Root, society president, presided, and Serena Risser was chairman of arrangements. After the formal ceremony Anna Belle sang, accompanied by Doris Marshall. Betty Dahlin played the accordion. Katherine Lochart tapped, accompanied by Evelyn Hurwitz. The society marshals were introduced to the new members. The marshals are: Dorothy Bartlett, Marjorie Norton, Annette Bridges, and Peggy Hammond. Other officers of the society are vice-president, Anna Mae Hatcher; secretary, Marty Cockfield; treasurer, Carol Phillips; and Inter-Society representative, Barbara Neville.

Gladys Tillett, president of the Dikenn society, presided over the second formal society initiation Tuesday night in Student's building. Alice Peters, inter-society representative, was in charge of arrangements for the meeting. Following the formal ceremony Anna Belle sang, accompanied by Doris Marshall. Edsie Groves played the accordion. The Dikenn marshals, Ellen Self, Jane Cook, Evelyn Horne, and Kitty Bain were introduced to the new members. Other officers of the society are Kit Culvert, Kay Conn, Anna Bell, and Tina Oettinger.

The Altheian formal initiation was held Wednesday night in Student's building at 8:30 o'clock with the president, Anne Boyette, presiding. Mae Duckworth was in charge of arrangements for this meeting, and Jane Thompson, Marion Kuhn, Elsie Boger, and Emma Neal Black were on the committee. Anna Belle sang accompanied by Emma Neal Black, and Dedy Laughlin danced. Betty Walker gave caps and gowns to graduation. Not one of them has ever forgotten Zeke, and though he may have forgotten names, he is always smiling when one of them stops to talk.

In these 48 years Zeke has married, and reared a family, one named for Dr. McIver, and a daughter named for one of Dr. McIver's daughters. His daughter, Annie, is one of the outstanding colored school teachers in the state. His son, Charles Duncan McIver Robinson died a few years ago, and the other son is an orchestra leader in New York city.

Ruth Crouch—250 N. Spencer
Agent for Greensboro Floral Co.
378 N. Elm (Bishop Block)
Day 6508 Night 2-3202

For Your Transportation Needs

Call
Union Bus Station
Phone 6151

POPULAR!
ACTIVE!
...and
Never Misses
a Class

Sanclon & Dickerson
207 South Elm Street
Phone 2-0044

Home Economics Club Wants New Members

Group Plans Fashion Show, Entertainment at Supper Meeting, September 30

"Join the Club Week" will be celebrated by the Home Economics club of Woman's college from Wednesday, October 23 to Thursday, October 31, according to an announcement by Bettie Rosa, president.

Tentative plans for a freshman entertainment and fashion show to be given in late October or early November were made at a supper meeting of the cabinet held Monday, September 24 at 6:45 p. m. in the small North dining hall.

Officers present were: Bettie Rosa, president; Kelly Moseley, vice-president; Frances Horton, secretary; Elizabeth Mitchell, treasurer; Lydia Ann Watkins, social chairman; Frances Joyner, membership chairman; Helen Mullican, finance chairman; Anna Rosa, arts and decorations chairman; Christine Allen, publicity chairman; Helen Whitlock, president of the 4-H club; Mrs. Bess N. Rosa, program adviser; Mrs. Madeline B. Street, club adviser; and Miss Margaret Edwards, head of the home economic department.

some readings. The society marshals, Shirley Pillar, Jane O'Connor, Florence Smith, and Doris Ayres were introduced to the new members. Other officers of the society are Jean Church, Rose Wilson, Belle Hicks Purvis, and Jane Thompson.

Janet Murphy, president of the Adelpian society, will preside over the formal initiation of that society tonight in the Student's building. Sara Ward will be in charge of the arrangements and Betsy West in charge of the decorations. Entertainment and refreshments will be made possible by Vege Slaughter and Inogene Cashion. Other officers of the society are Gladys Stedman, Pauline Douglas, Octavia Muller, and Nell McCallum.

GET YOUR HATS

At
Betty Lou Hal Shoppe
111 S. Elm St.

A Good Place to Eat
THACKER'S
INC.
108 W. Market St.
Greensboro—Charlotte
Air-Conditioned

Seniors Choose Dance Chairman

Ellen McGill was elected senior dance chairman, and Jean McDonald was chosen chairman of the Senior Unmusical, in post office elections, Wednesday, October 2. The senior formal will be November 30, and the Unmusical will be next spring.

Mary Marlin, Allan Jones Star in Saturday Movie

"The Great Victor Herbert" is the film to be shown in Aycock auditorium Saturday, at 8:30 p. m. Walter Connolly makes a brief appearance in the title role and is ably supported by Mary "My Heart Belongs to Daddy" Martin, and Allan Jones.

The movie is the story of a stage couple's struggle happily enhanced by Victor Herbert's melodies and a brief biography of him. There is a good period background. Twenty-eight selections from the Herbert melodies are presented, making this picture one of the best musicals of the past year.

The late Dr. Francis H. Herrick, professor emeritus of biology at Western Reserve university, was widely known for his study of American eagles.

Beaver's Individualized Waves
Created for and Adapted to Your Own Personality
Beaver's Beauty Shop
226 S. Greene St. Phone 2-1032

CECIL - RUSSELL
DRUG STORE
Cut Rate
Retail Store - Free Delivery
310 S. Elm—Phone 8114

Bowl the Year 'Round—Keep Healthy
GREENSBORO BOWLING ALLEYS
Phone 8046 341 N. Elm Street

25 CENTS IN COIN
ROLLS DEVELOPED
Any size Kodak film developed
8 never-fade Velox prints only 25¢
Low Price On Cashed Film
Handy Mailing Envelopes Furnished
VALUABLE PREMIUMS GIVEN • MAIL YOUR FILMS TO JACK RABBIT CO.
SPARTANBURG, S.C.

He could have been "The Man Most Likely to Succeed"

but indifference, like using a faulty pen, kept him
behind the 8-Ball

Harry had everything, except a sense of discrimination. Perhaps he leaned too heavily on his natural gifts. Anyway he never added to them in college, but laughed things off—like the times his old-fashioned pen ran dry in classes and exams. Our bright alumnus is out in the world today—a man who could have given orders, he is taking them.

Sure, it seems far-fetched, but you'll be surprised what a great big difference it makes in your grades to carry a sure-fire pen like the Parker Sacless Vacumatic.

It's this revolutionary streamlined Beauty that never runs dry unless you let it. For its sacless Television barrel holds nearly twice as much ink as our old type, and it lets you SEE days ahead if it's running low.

It's the only Style that looks like circlets of shimmering velvet—ring upon ring of luminous Pearl and Jet. The One-Hand sacless filler with the "lubricated" Point of extra fine-grained 14K Gold, extra resilient—tipped with Osmidium that writes "as smooth as oil."

It's the college favorite by nearly 3 to 1—so it rates one "in the Know" to carry the genuine.

Be sure to look for Parker's Blue Diamond—it means Guaranteed for Life. Avoid all substitutes—then you'll have no regrets.
The Parker Pen Co., Janesville, Wis.

GUARANTEED
FOR LIFE
by Parker's
Blue Diamond

Parker
VACUMATIC

Pens marked with the Blue Diamond are guaranteed for the life of the owner against everything except loss or intentional damage, subject only to a charge of 35¢ for postage, insurance, and handling, provided complete pen is returned for service.

Debutants
(illustrated) $8.75;
Sub-deb. $5
Others $5 to $13.75
Writefine Pencils
to match, $3.50 to $6

TRY PARKER QUINK, THE MIRACLE INK THAT CLEANS A PEN AS IT WRITES, 15¢ AND 25¢

Mr. O. P. Clutts Tells Students of Early History of School

Education Professor Gives Illustrated Lecture in Chapel Program

At the chapel exercises, Tuesday, October 1, at 12:15 p. m. in Aycock auditorium, the students of Woman's college learned something of the early history of their college from Mr. Oliver Perry Clutts, faculty member of the education department. Mr. Clutts illustrated his talk by pictures of the college buildings, students, and faculty members which were taken years ago in the early days of the college's existence.

Mr. Clutts praised Dr. Charles Duncan McIver, founder and first president of the college, for his efforts to establish an institution of higher learning for women in North Carolina.

Are you having a birthday party or weiner roast? Please place your orders one day in advance.

College Pastry Shop

330 Tate St. Open Sundays

CRUTCHFIELD'S, INC.
Drug Store
The Store of Personal Service
In O. Henry Hotel
GREENSBORO, N. C.

R.C.A. Victor, Philco and
Zenith Radios
Easy to Buy, Easy to Pay
the Hyman Way
HYMAN'S FURNITURE CO.

"If It's Paper"

Dillard Paper Co.

Charlotte, N. C. Greenville, S. C.
Greensboro, N. C.

Compliments
of
HAM DRUG CO.
PHONE 6149

Miller Furniture Co.
Furniture of Quality

314 S. Elm St. Dial 2-3264

TODAY - SATURDAY
That explosive blonde is back in a rowdy romance of the tropics!

ANN SOTHERN
As
"Congo Maisie"
STARTS MONDAY
Mickey Rooney

As
"YOUNG TOM EDISON"

STATE
Dial 5924
Mat. 15c Nite 15c

Radio Master of Ceremonies To Be First Lecturer of Season

Commentator of 'Information Please', Author, Literary Critic, to Speak on Experiences

Mr. Clifton Fadiman, well-known literary critic, lecturer, and popular master of ceremonies on National Broadcasting corporation's "Information Please," will speak at the second lecture of the year at 8 p. m., Thursday, October 10, in Aycock auditorium.

Mr. Fadiman, born in New York and educated in the New York city public schools and at Columbia university, began his literary career by editing the Columbia undergraduate publication, Morningside. He held down a publishing house job in his early days out of college and was connected with Simon and Schuster's editorial board. He has contributed to the New Yorker and other magazines and has examined for review, on an average of 1,500 books a year.

Fifth Season of Lecturing

Mr. Fadiman is in his fifth season of lecturing. In his lecture travels he has covered as many as 40,000 miles in a single year. His current radio program "Information Please" is said to attract an estimated audience of 8,000,000 persons every Tuesday evening.

Nevertheless, Mr. Fadiman is a very modest man. He says of his contribution to this program, which is ranked among the five top-flight radio programs in the entire country, "I only ask the questions."

Information, Please

The basic idea behind the program is, Mr. Fadiman explains, that of confounding the experts, showing up the weak spots of the celebrities in their own fields, giving the little fellow a chance to build up his ego. Mr. Fadiman admits that the program's success reflects the sadistic tendencies in most of us but does not see anything unwholesome in occasionally puncturing the vanity of the experts.

Some of the other occupations in which Mr. Fadiman has engaged during his varied thirty-five years are: drug clerk, book salesman, cyclist, tutor, mail sorter, insurance salesman, and librarian.

Likes Outdoor Life

Entirely contrary to popular notions of how literary critics and radio artists spend their days, Mr. Fadiman shuns night clubs, practically never goes to a literary tea and likes outdoor life. He prides himself on his cycling.

He is married and the father of an eight year old son, who is, Mr. Fadiman says, "Information Please's" most pitiless critic.

Clifton Fadiman, radio personality, will lecture in Aycock auditorium, on October 10. Mr. Fadiman is a well-known author and critic.

Miss Miriam Shelden Heads Aquatic Course

The aquatic instructor's course will begin Wednesday, October 9, at 7:30 p. m., in the pool. Practise will be held for two hours each Wednesday night. Miss Miriam Shelden will be the faculty head.

Senior lifers who are at least 19 years of age are eligible for the course. Also people who wish to renew their aquatic instructor's rating are required to attend each Wednesday night.

The course is the regulation American Red Cross course for people who are interested in teaching swimming and life-saving. All persons desiring to take this course must have their feet examined and be prepared to go in swimming Wednesday night.

West End Ice Cream Co., Inc.
Hot Dogs
Phone 8284
1200 Spring Garden St.

Make Up a Party and Come to Jefferson Roof Restaurant
"On Top of the Town"
Delicious Food—Delightful Surroundings

Dr. Frank P. Graham, Dr. Mary E. Woolley Head Camera Contest

Youth in Focus Offers Prizes to Amateur Fans

"Youth in Focus," a national photographic contest for the best pictures of young America, is open to every college camera fan. Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina, and Dr. Mary E. Woolley, President Emerita of Mt. Holyoke college, are sponsors of the contest.

All amateur photographers may enter the contest, and each contestant may send as many pictures as he wishes. The subject, story, and skill will determine the winners; technical ability will be incidental.

Forty prizes are offered exclusively in the college classification, and college students have a chance to win the first prize of $500.00. In addition to the 281 cash prizes, "Youth in Focus" will reward contestants by publishing a weekly page of pictures in Friday magazine, by publishing a book of the prize-winning pictures, and by arranging a travelling exhibit which will tour the country.

Entry forms, rules, and complete information about the contest may be obtained from Youth in Focus, 1775 Broadway, New York city. The contest closes November 30, 1940.

Scientists at Kansas State college are raising cattle on a diet that substitutes powdered limestone for alfalfa.

Photographs
at Manning's

POWER-PROGRAMS

WBIG serves the No. 1 spot of the South with 5,000 Watts, power packed with pulling programs of CBS and fine local talent and news.
Send for the facts about the Greensboro "Magic Circle" CBS AFFILIATE
5,000 Watts Day
1,000 Watts Night
WBIG
Edney Ridge, Director
GREENSBORO, N. C.

Woman's College Band Practices for Greater University Day Game

Band Has Twenty-Five New Girls; Will Attend Carolina, Duke Games

To the rat-a-tat-tat of drums, the Woman's college band is putting in some strenuous practice for the football season which will begin for the band on October 19, Greater University day, at the Carolina-State game in Raleigh.

The band has also been invited to play in Chapel Hill at the Carolina-Tulane game and at Duke's homecoming game with Georgia Tech.

There are now approximately 50 members in the band—25 new ones. Old members of the band are as follows: Eloise Abernathy, Roxie Carswell, Jennie Cecil, Dorcas Downey, Pamela Earle, Anne Felton, Louise Godbey, Ruth Helen Gunn, Dorothy Holden, Evelyn Hurwitz, Marguerite Laughridge, Jonny Murray, Jeanne Owen, Mary Elizabeth Pilley, Rosalie Pilley, Martha Register, Mary Jo Rendleman, Meredith Riggsbee, Thora Ross, Joyce Safrin, Mildred Simmons, Emily Stringfield, Josephine Walker, Louise Watson, and Betty O'Neal.

New members of the band are: Mary Elizabeth Cow, Norma Lee Daves, Mary Lee Dysart, Rosemary Faudel, Louise Few, Kitty Lee Fritz, Laura Ruth Haggman, Mildred Holand, Beryl Hollifield, Mary Charlotte Jones, Martha Barnes Kirkland, Georgia Mae McKeever, Eleanor Nobles, Carolyn Parker, Catherine Alice Reaver, Margie Rue, Myra Stowe, Dora Margaret Stroupe, Ruth Supplee, Jane Thompson, Marie Wall, Emily Lou Wilkins, Mildred Womble, Dorothea Bultman, and Emily Crowell.

POLLOCK'S
Co-ed Shoes
Hosiery—Bags
Gloves
102 S. Elm St.

Officials Announce Sports Schedule

Monday—12 noon, Dip period.
5 p. m.—Speedball, freshmen.
Lifesaving, everybody.
Volleyball, upperclassmen.
Tuesday—5 p. m., Hockey, upperclassmen.
Volleyball, freshmen.
5:15 p. m., part of Gray to A. A. camp.
Dip period.
Wednesday—12 noon, Dip period.
5 p. m., Hockey, freshmen.
Lifesaving, everybody.
Speedball, upperclassmen.
5:15, part of Cotten to A. A. camp.
Thursday—12 noon, Dip period.
5 p. m., Hockey, upperclassmen.
Dip period.
7:30, Dance group practice.
Friday—12 noon, Dip period.
5 p. m., Hockey, freshmen.
Dip period.
5:15 p. m., part of Hinshaw to A. A. camp.
Saturday—2:30 p. m., Dip period.
Sunday—3:5 p. m., Co-recreational period.
3-4 p. m., Dip period.

Standard Foto Supply Co.
Cameras, Amateur Supplies
124 E. Washington St. Dial 4236
GREENSBORO, N. C.
Printing Developing Enlarging

Brooks-Wilson Co.
Dresses—Suits—Coats
119 S. Greene St.
GREENSBORO, N. C.

Compliments of Burtner Furniture Co.
312 S. Elm St. Dial 8417

CLASSIFIED

All classified ads must be in the CAROLINIAN office by 9 p. m. on Wednesday evenings. The rate for advertising in CLASSIFIED is one cent per word.

LOST: Dikean key case. "Frances Boatman" inscribed. Eleven keys and $5.00. Please return to 322 Mary Foust or mail to P. O. Box 90. Reward.

LOST: Black zipper key case containing driver's license and keys. Please return to Serena Riser, 101 Hinshaw. Urgent.

COUGHING COLDS
Relieve Mucus With VICKS VapoRus

Complete Beauty Service
Marie's Beauty Salon
Phone 8413

Meet Your Friends at the LOTUS!
Be smart and dine at Greensboro's latest and most modern restaurant.
Chinese and American
Diners

James Stewart
Margaret Sullivan
Robert Young
Frank Morgan
In
"MORTAL STORM"
Monday - Tuesday
IMPERIAL
A NORTH CAROLINA THEATRE
TELEPHONE 5920

O.K. Mister—here's the Smoker's Cigarette

COOLER, Milder, BETTER-TASTING
... that means Chesterfield

There's a whole World's Series of good smoking in Chesterfields...that's why it's the smoker's cigarette. The best tobaccos in all of Tobaccoland...blended together for MILDNESS, COOLNESS and BETTER TASTE.

Do you smoke the cigarette that SATISFIES

PAUL DERRINGER, one of the game's great pitchers pleases the crowd...just as Chesterfield satisfies millions of smokers!

Chesterfield
MORE AND MORE...AMERICA SMOKES
THE CIGARETTE THAT SATISFIES

Copyright 1940,
Lorillard & Myrna
Tobacco Co.

For More Fun Out of Life
Chew Delicious
DOUBLEMINT GUM Daily

Highspot your days and evenings—enjoy the fun of chewing refreshing DOUBLEMINT GUM.

The velvety smoothness of DOUBLEMINT GUM adds to the natural fun of chewing. Delicious, cooling, real-mint flavor helps make your mouth feel refreshed...adds fun to everything you do.

Chewing this healthful, inexpensive treat helps sweeten your breath...aids your digestion...helps keep your teeth attractive.

Treat yourself daily to healthful, delicious DOUBLEMINT GUM.

Buy several packages of DOUBLEMINT GUM today

King Cotton Hotel
Headquarters for W. C. Students and Parents
Visit Our Grill

THE GRILL

We appreciate your patronage and hope it will continue
7306—Phone—9465

Special!

Cream Permanents
$7.50 Reduced to $5.00
$5.00 Reduced to $3.50
Non-Ammonia Cream Wave
Oil Permanents
$3.50 Reduced to $2.50
Shampoo and Finger Wave 50c
"Individual Styling"
College Shop and Beauty Salon

NOW PLAYING

DEANNA DURBIN

In her 8th Consecutive Hit
"SPRING PARADE"

STARTS MONDAY

"South of Pago Pago"

NEXT THURSDAY

"The Howards of Virginia"

CAROLINA
THEATRE