PEACE ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

COMMUNITY SINGING IN CHAPEL

Colonel Olds Speaks.

Due to the rain last Tuesday the students were forced to take refuge in the chapel to do their holiday celebrating. They didn't mind a little thing like that tho-they sang and had a good time just the same.

Miss Harriet Elliott read President Wilson's message to the American people, "To My Fellow Countrymen." After this Mr. Brown directed us in singing some patriotic songs: "America," "God Save the King" and the "Marsellaise." Miss Bivins sang "Ring Out Sweet Bells of Peace" and afterwards she and Mr. Brown taught us the chorus.

Other songs which were sung were "Over There," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," "A Long, Long Trail," "Sons of America," "Carry On," "Today's a Holiday," "K-K-K-Katy" and some other versions of the latter such as

"K-K-K-P-K-K-K-P-

You're the only j-j-j-job that I abhor And when the m-m-moon beams over the cowshed

I'll be scrubbing up the k-k-k-kitchen floor."

The last thing in the way of singing was "The Star Spangled Banner."

It seemed that a speaker for the occasion was an impossibility, but at the appointed moment our friend, Colonel Olds, appeared upon the scene and came to our rescue. He made a very interesting and inspiring talk. But that was not the only interesting thing about his visit. He brought us another gift, a picture of Lafayette-for our "Hall of History," which is growing into prominence.

ANNUAL EDITOR

ELECTED BY SPECIALS

A very important meeting of the Specials was held last Saturday afternoon, called at the request of the editor-in-chief of "The Pine Needles." The object of this meeting was to elect an editor from the Special class for the Annual. Lillian D. Wooten was elected.

DANCING CLASS IN EXPRESSION ROOM, MISS WALEN, TEACHER

From 7:30 to 8:30 every Wednesday evening a social dancing class, composed of the faculty members, is held by Miss Walen, one of the physical education instructors, in Miss Sharpe's recitation room.

HAVE YOU HEARD?

The coal strike of 425,000 union men has just about been adjusted. The miners have accepted the offer to meet in a wage conference at Washington, and the strike order was withdrawn after eighteen hours' debate.

On Tuesday Greensboro voted against extension of the city limits. The progressive men of the city feel greatly disappointed. They state that the fight is not yet settled and will not be until it is settled right. Greensboro must develop into an orderly and beautiful town, they say.

Miss Clara Byrd, a member of our faculty, who was recently in California, has a lengthy article in the Wednesday's Greensboro Daily News. She tells in this article what woman suffrage has done for California. The following are a few of the things which have been accomplished:

A minimum wage law for women and children; a mother's pension law; the abatement and injunction act; a teacher's pension act; the married woman's property act; a pure milk law, etc.

She ends by saying:

ity of women to show good judgment in governmental affairs, let them remember that the women of take care of that. The chorus, "in-California were given the credit for the re-election of Woodrow Wil-

Lieutenant Maynard, well known as the "flying parson," took part in Armistice Day celebration both in Washington and New York.

CAROLINA VS. DAVIDSON AT WINSTON-SALEM

Number of Girls Go Over.

The Carolina and Davidson football teams played this afternoon at Winston-Salem. A number of our girls are spending this week-end in Winston-Salem, and a number of others were expecting to go through the country to attend the game. Although all of us could not see the game, we are eagerly anticipating the results for we are sure that both teams will put up a good fight.

Write Miss Coit.

For the benefit of those who wish to write Miss Coit while she is away her address is : Care Rev. Robert Coit, Soouchen, Chosen (Korea.) We hope that many of the girls will write to Miss Coit of the happenings on the campus, showing her in this the others, I am, way our appreciation of what she has done for us.

COMING! GIRLS!

U. N. C. GLEE CLUB.

We are expecting the Carolina Glee Club on November the twentyfirst. This anticipated event will be in the auditorium at eight o'clock. Get your fifty cents ready immediately, because you know nobody will want to miss this treat.

NOTES FROM MUSICDOME

THE COLLEGE ORCHESTRA

The college orchestra had a delightful time in the Hut last Tuesday night. After a delicious and well-appointed dinner consisting of fried chiken, sandwiches, chicken salad, olives, pickles, cake and cream, the members of the orchestra played games and danced.

THE COLLEGE CHORUS

This assembly from Musicdome, called to order by Lydia Farmer, temporary chairman, met this week and elected their officers. Elsiline Felton is now president, Rachael Haynes is vice-president, and Sadie "If Southern men doubt the abil- Hunt is secretary. They have no treasurer, for the only fee necessary is good singing, and Mr. Brown can cluding Mr. Brown," is working hard on the Messiah, and promises that it will be a success.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION FROM DR. GUDGER

The following is a portion of a letter received by the Seniors. are always glad to hear from Gudger:

My Dear Miss Nannie Mae Tilly:

Very charmingly indeed did you discharge your duty of notifying me that your class had done me the honor to dedicate its annual to me. This is a compliment of which I am very greatly appreciative, and for which I most heartily thank the Seniors.

Please convey to the whole Senior class a message from me expressing my very warm appreciation of the very great compliment which they have shown me.

With best wishes for you and all

Very sincerely yours, E. W. GUDGER.

BULLDOGS VS. WILDCATS

Last week the faculty received the following:

The Senior "Bulldogs" hereby challenge the faculty "Wildcats" of N. C. C. to a game of basket ball on Nov. 11, at 4:30 p. m., with the following conditions:

1. In case of bruises, scratches or broken bones, we shall be as good friends as ever.

2. If the Bulldogs whip the Wildcats, there shall be peace between the faculty and Seniors, (i. e., the faculty shall never "sit" on Seniors again.)

The challenge was immediately accepted and the teams chosen. On account of rain, however, the game was postponed. Watch for it in the near future.

THE SCRAP BOOK.

Pessimists are people who around looking for thorns to sit on.

There are three things that no one can do to the satisfaction of others -make love, poke the fire, and run a paper.

We do not know what ripples of healing are set in motion when we simply smile on one another. The world needs nothing more than sunny people.

Formerly the seat of honor, which was the head of the table, was at the center of the table rather than at the end. Royalty, as a rule, still observe this ancient custom and use the center of the table for th ehead. It was a boast of Queen Victoria's that she had never sat anywhere but at the center of a table.

The Gauls were the original inventors of the art of soap-making. Their best soap was a combination of goat's fat and beechwood ashes. Romans later learned this art, and in the ruins of Pompeii was discovered a soapmaker's shop. Prior to days much noise and confusion as posof soap, earth was sometimes used sible without taking too much time. as a cleansing medium in baths.

Optimists are people who wear the silver lining of his cloud on the outside.

We are never beaten until we confess our defeat.

ARE YOU ONE?

In 1911's Annual there appeared a rhyme on the subject, "My Borrowed Goods, I Crave Them So." That was in the Annual of 1911, and the Pine Needles of 1920 is now rapidly being rushed to print. Let's think of a few changes which have taken place during these nine years student body, better —a larger equipment, better social life, and student government. But with all the strides of progress there still remains a black spot in our college life. We refer to nothing other than borrowing. We are NOT directing this to the "new girls" especially, but to Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen and Specials. Something is wrong somewhere. Do we not have student government? Do not the old girls have such a spirit against borrowing that it cannot exist much less flourish? This last question is the root of the whole evil. Some of the supposed to be leading girls of the college are none other than honorary presidents of the borrowing association, if it may be termed such. And we remark how pretty Jane looks-always such fine clothes—coat, hat, coat suit, waist, dress, shoes, gloves and many articles that cannot be mentioned here. There is no excuse for the existing borrowing condition which is found on our campus. Not only is it a bad habit for us to form in as much as we are concerned, but what effect can this borrowing habit produce upon the people of Greensboro? While in Greensboro we always represent North Carolina College and it is a very poor representation (we think) for us to be so heartless as to overwork some poor (yet fine) hats and coats, just because they happen to be more attractive than some others which are shown by their owners.

Remember borrowing is a bad disease. If you never had it, do not catch it. If you have it, try to cure yourself. M. K.

AN EXPERIMENT IN THE DINING ROOM

In preparing for our new dining room Miss Brookes and others are trying to find a better plan of serving than the one now used. Last week one plan was tried. Instead of one person from each table going to the serving room after announcements were made, a girl appointed from each table went to the serving room as soon as she entered the dining room and remained in line until the blessing was asked and nouncements made. Besides, girls did not relieve each other. The object of this plan was to avoid as Other plans will be tried later.

COLLEGE DRAMATIC

CLUB MEETS

Monday . night a very important meeting of the Dramatic Club was held in the Adelphian Society hall. The meeting was called to order by the president and plans for the year wer discussed. There was much discussion about a name for the club. and it was finally decided to call it the "N. C. College Dramatic Club," until a more appropriate one could be decided on by the members. Mary Wynn Ahernethy presented the names of a number of prospective plays, one of which may be given by the club during the year. Miss Languer and Miss Schock were present and offered many helpful suggestions. Lena Kernodle was elected as coach for the pramatic Club plays this year.

SOCIAL FOR EARLY RISERS ON THANKSGIVING

It is always a great occasion when the Presbyterians entertain the N. C. girls. This year they will entertain on Thanksgiving morning. They will first take the girls for an automobile ridfe and then they will take them to the church, where a quail breakfast will be served. The girls are looking forward with much pleasure to this occasion.

GROUP GOES TO WINSTON-SALEM; INSPECTS FACTORIES

A few of the Seniors and two of the faculty seem to have organized themselves into a troop of professional sight-seers or travelers. Misses Blain and Leslie, Coffey, Sanders, Clifford, Dodson and Klutz, who a few weeks ago "took in" Guilford Battle Ground are spending this afternoon in Winston-Salem inspecting factories. Della Dodson's home is in Winston-Salem. The party will take dinner with her, returning to the college about ten o'clock.

MARRIED.

Miss Evangeline Brown, who was a member of the class of '21, was married Wednesday night at ten o'clock to Mr Bernard Ferguson. We wish "Brownie" much happiness.

Miss Mary Adele Glenn, of Greensboro, a former student of the college, was married on Wednesday evening, November 12, to Capt. Phil Hardie.

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Foust spent several days in Raleigh this week, holding a conference with the State Building Association. The conference was concerned with the building that is to be done on the campus.

Miss Mary Owen Graham, who was formerly a member of our faculty, and who is now the president of Peace Institute, spent the day at the college last Friday.

MISS COIT LEAVES.

Last Saturday afternoon Laura Coit left the college for her vacation of six months which she will spend in Korea with her brother, Rev. Coit.

Dr. Foust, Miss King, Syhil Barrington, Mary Foust, Lois Wilson, Ruth Winslow and Branson Price accompanied her to the station to wish for her the "happiest vacation respect and love which the students of our college have for Miss Coit.

THE GLEE CLUB.

The voice department of the Glee Club had its first regular meeting last Monday afternoon. Judging by the vocal fuss it made, this department of the Glee Club will soon rival the instrumental departments. The Glee Club expects to have many practices before Thanksgiving, for on that eventful night the club hopes to give a concert. We are not absolutely sure that it will be possible for the club to have this night, but if it does you may expect a real treat. Save your small change and come to the concert-you will be wafted on vocal wings to guitar, ukelele and banjo strumming lands.

THE Y. W. C. A. CHOIR

This part of Musicdome makes its first bow to the public through the newspaper. We have heard of it in other ways—announcements, locals and certain crowds coming from a society hall or chapel some afternoons; also, we have "seen and heard" it at Sunday vespers. This coming Sunday will be a "red letter day" to this department. The vespers are to be "twilight vespers"with soft, sweet singing from the choir. They have several beautiful numbers, including an anthem, a quarette number and a duet number.

WEEK OF PRAYER

Seniors Conduct Class.

Students everywhere are observing this week as one of prayer for world-fellowship, and in this respect our own college is "up on the job."

The Seniors whose subject was "The Americas," had charge of the program for Monday. They had cards placed on all the dining room tables directing our thoughts by:

"Oh East is East, and West is West, And never the twain shall meet, Till Earth and Sky stand presently At God's great judgment seat."

The main feature was the service held in our "Y" Hut after dinner. At this time Mary Wynn Abernethy outlined briefly the purpose of worldfellowship and introduced Lela Wade, who gave us a ten-minute talk on "The Americas." A full and detailed discussion of this subever" and to show, in a degree, the ject was impossible, so she gave us the outstanding facts that would aid in our thinking.

Sophomores Conduct Class.

Tuesday night, in the students' sitting room, the Sophomore class conducted the World-Fellowship meeting.

China was the nation under discussion and quite a few things were learned by those present from the helpful talk given by Sue Irwin.

Sentence prayers were given for the development of China in body, mind and soul; for praise to God, who has blessed us so abundantly, and for the uplifting of the woman of the Orient land.

Thursday the Specials' Day.

Thursday morning on every table in the dining room a small map of India, on which was written, "India needs wour prayers today," was found. India was the country assigned to the Specials for their especial study and prayers, and by placing these small maps on each table they hoped to draw the attention of every student to the conditions of this country. Thursday night a short service was held in the Hut by the Specials, to which everyone was welcomed. Lila Bell gave a very interesting talk on the dreadful conditions and the many needs of India. The service was closed by an appropriate song by Kathleen Culbertson and short sentence prayers.

SOCIETIES

SIDORADALAMIDIDALAM ADELPHIAN

Last Saturday night the old Adelphians and new Adelphians their first regular meeting. It was such a great occasion and the proceedings so thoroughly Adelphian that the members of the society prefers to keep even the program secret.

CORNELIAN PROGRAM AFFORDED PLEASURE

The regular meeting of the Cornelian Society was held last Saturday night. After a very interesting business meeting a short but very attractive little play was given-"The Twelve Pound Look." The characters were as follows:

Anne Fulton-Sir Harry Simms. Mary Nixon-Lady Simms. Ruth Allison—Kate, the Typist (Sir Harry's former wife.) Gladys Wells-Butler.

DIKEANS BEGIN YEAR WITH ENJOYABLE MEETING

The first regular meeting of the Dikean Literary Society occurred last Saturday night.

A very unique play was given in the auditorium of Students' building after the meeting proper. It was enjoyed by the members of the so ciety and Miss King, who was our invited guest.

The scene of the play, "The Sweet Meat Game," was laid in Chinatown in San Francisco. So well were the roles of the actresses played that they made the audience feel as if they were really in for off China. The dramatic personel was as follows:

Yiong-Yueng, "Live Forever" Merchant-Lula Martin McIver.

San Chi, "Beautiful Bird," His Blind Son-Helen Dunn Creasy.

Woo-Lin-Mai, "Sweet Smelling Flower," His Second Wife-Ethel Bynum.

A White Devil, a New Year's Reveler-Lillie Mae George.

Immediately after the literary program the society dispersed to meet again in the Hut a few minutes later for a social gathering.

The Hut was never more beautiful than Saturday night. Japanese lanterns spread a soft glow over the room, which was decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn fol-

The waitresses, who looked very attractive in their vari-colored Chinese costumes, served coffee with marshmallows, cheese, pimento and meat sandwiches.

Students going to Burlington to spenc Sundays should have access girls are looking forward to this to alarm clocks on Saturday nights. Proof of the wisdom of this advice was illustrated last Sunday; when two of our dignified Seniors falled to provide themselves with alarm cocks, and the train treated them just as Mary's little lamb treated i's tail-left them behind.

Y. W. C. A. VESPER SERVICE SUNDAY EVENING

The students of North Carolina College considered themselves very fortunate in having Miss Blank to talk to them on Sunday evening at vesper service. She took as a subject of her talk the three words. Faith, Hope and Love. She showed how these three things combined made a true type of Christian womanhood. Miss Blank impressed upon all of those present that they were responsible for lives of some girls and her parting message was, "Be sure you help someone in life."

Kathleen Culbertson sang "Teach Me to Pray," and Elsiline Felton played the accompaniment.

Vesper Wednesday Evening.

Miss Adele Ruffin, who is the colored worker of the South Atlantic Field Committee, spoke to the students on Wednesday evening at vesper service. She spoke on the needs of the colored girls and women ,and what the Young Woman's Christian Association is doing to meet these needs. She also spoke of the part which the Young Woman's Christian Association hopes to play in a better race understanding.

Plans for Vesper Services for the Coming Week.

On Sunday evening, November 16th, the vesper services will be held in the chapel of Students' Building in the nature of a twilight service. We will not have a speaker for the occasion but a number of songs will be sung very softly. The lights in the building will all be turned off except some on the stage.

On November 23rd we will begin what we have decided to call "Talks Among Ourselves." These talks are to be given by some of our own students. The first talk will be given on the subject of "Loyalty; the second will be given November 30 on "Sincerity"; the third will be given December 7 on "Personal Religion." Then on the 14th of December we will have our White Gift service.

INVITATIONS RECEIVED; SOPHOMORES TO ENTERTAIN

The new girls have received the following interesting invitations from the Sophomores:

"On Saturday, the fifteenth, Just as the clock strikes eight, Many folk from fiction land Will gather for a fete.

As fiction lad or lass, come join us and be gay-

It is until ten-thirty we linger there and play."

Both the Sophomores and

(Gir: visiting in new dormiture and wishing to go to third floor)-"Oh me, do I have to climb all of these steps?"

(Second girl) -- "Oh no, we'll just ring for the elevator."

FACULTY INVITES CLASS TO OUR DUELING GROUND

What do you think, Miss Seymour asked her entire Sophomore Biology class to "meet her behind the laundry" last week! Miss Seymour's real motive was a peaceful one—a trip after crawfish—but the girls were suspicious at first when they heard her announcement.

Freshman: "Is today Thursday?"
Sophomore: "No, it's Wednesday."

Freshman: "Oh, I'm all mixed up this week because they surprised us with oysters on the day when we were to have had hot-dogs."
