REGULAR MEETING OF ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

BIG HIKES PLANNED.

On Tuesday, Jan. 6, the Athletic Association held its first regular meeting of this year. The entire time was used for reports and business. It was announced that volleyball teams would be picked soon. But the main feature of the meeting was the plans for hiking during the winter and spring. The following plan was submitted:

For general hikes, there will be two hikes a week. For each group of ten there will be a captain probably chosen from the Junior or Senior class. The hikes will be in any direction except toward town and on Spring Garden street. Hikers must wear low heel comfortable shoes, not slippers, and must wear sweaters or coats during cold weather. The captain will be responsible for her group. She will keep a record of the number of miles each girl takes. So many miles will count a certain number of points for each girl in the Athletic Association point system. The records for the classes will also be kept and that class making the best record in hiking will receive a certain number of points toward winning the cup on Field Day.

Scheduled hikes will be on Wednesday and Friday p. m. at 5 o'clock; but if any group or part of group and captain wish to go more than two days, they may do so. If hikes are arranged they will be for the purpose of hiking and sight seeing. Hikes will start with short distances and will gradually become longer. For those girls who cannot take long hikes, regular short ones will be planned.

It is hoped that special long hikes may be taken in the spring.

A hikers' camp supper or picnic is planned for the spring. Also a contest to test the speed of the hikers.

The girl who makes the best record in hiking will be the champion hiker and if possible a prize of some kind will be offered.

These plans will be definitely worked out and it is hoped that hikes may be started soon, so that good practice may be gotten while the weather does not permit hockey.

Are you interested in hiking? Then join the Athletic Association, for only members may go on these hikes.

INTER-SOCIETY DEBATE

DEC. 13, 1919.

Saturday evening, Dec. 13, 1919, the members of the three societies and a good many guests enjoyed an interesting discussion of the immigration question, the subject of the Inter-Society Debate. Marjorie Mendenhall and Ruth Vick, Cornellians, presented a strong line of argument but were defeated by Elizabeth Smith and Charlie May Cridlebaugh, Adelphians. This was the final trial for the Bernau cup.

A.

Spring Term Officers Elected.

At a very exciting meeting last Saturday night the Adelphians elected their officers for the Spring term.

They are as follows:

President—Willie John Medlock.
Vice-President—Laura Howard.

Recording Secretary—May McArn.
Recorder—

Critic—Isabelle McDowell.

The corresponding secretary, Marion Daniel, and treasurer, Flossie Foster, hold their offices for the entire year.

C.

Election of Officers.

The Cornelian Society had its regular meeting as usual on Saturday night. The girls all enjoyed getting together again after the holidays. This meeting was of especial interest, since the most exciting event of the whole year took place—the election of officers.

Those elected were:

President—Marjorie Mendenhall.
Vice-President—Ruth Vick.

Corresponding Secretary—Lucille Mason.

Critic—Hessie Blankenship.

The Cornellians are very much elated over these new officers, yet they feel so deeply indebted to their former ones that it is not without a great big streak of real regret that they let them go out.

D.

There was a regular meeting of the Dikeans Literary Society last Saturday night, January 3rd.

The Dikeans are starting the new year off in a fine spirit and with much determination for the future.

TICKETS FOR CONCERT COURSE DISTRIBUTED

GREAT TREAT IN STORE.

Galli Curci, Ganz, Lazzari, Alda.

The students who made their order before the holidays have received their season tickets to the Greensboro Concert Course, and are anticipating a great treat.

The first concert will be given by Madame Galli-Curci, assisted by Homer Samuels, pianist, and Mamie Berengner, flutist, on January 17.

Rudolph Ganz, great Swiss pianist and "world figure in art," will appear with Caroline Lazzari, noted contralto, on February 21.

Frances Alda, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will sing on March 11.

EIGHT HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENTS AT THE COLLEGE

Will Remain Here for a Month.

Six home demonstration agents arrived at the college on Monday and two more came on Thursday. Misses Gaither Padgett, Proffit, Speas, Stephenson and Creighton were among those who registered first. These agents will be here, possibly not longer than a month, because they have been away from this county for quite a while and are anxious to get back. They are here for a course in economics. The Home Economic Department is giving the course with the assistance of Mr. Cook and Mr. Linderman.

DR. FOUST ADDRESSES STUDENTS WEDNESDAY

Wednesday at chapel period Dr. Foust read the parable of the talents. He explained that never before in our memory have we found this country in such chaos. One thing that stands out in the life of the individual is his struggle for rights. He believes that these problems will be solved favorably, but many things worry us now. Dr. Foust said, in his opinion, we would get along better if Americans placed more emphasis upon their duty instead of their rights and privileges. We are placed here with certain responsibilities and privileges. If we consider this we will improve our life and also the lives of those about us.

NEW CLASS OFFICERS HAVE BEEN ELECTED

JUNIOR CLASS HAPPENINGS.

Spring Term Officers.

The Junior class has elected its officers for the last half of the year. Those newly elected are Virginia Davis, president; Bertie Lee Whitesides, vice-president; Carrie Bell Ross, secretary; Mary Nixon, treasurer; Flossie Foster, critic; and Evelyn Hodges, cheer leader.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS.

At a cell meeting on Wednesday afternoon the following Sophomore officers were elected for the Spring term: President, Joscelyn McDowell; vice-president, Ethel Bynum; secretary, Mary Louise Bender; treasurer, Lucretia Ashby; critic, Katie Whitley; cheer leader, Virginia Postles; athletic vice-president, Hazel Mizelle.

SPECIALS ELECT NEW OFFICERS General "Pep" Meeting Held.

At the last regular class meeting of 1919 the following officers were elected by the Specials: President, Dorothy Williams; vice-president, Kathleen Culbertson; secretary and treasurer, Sadie Walker; critic, Claudia Kelly; athletic vice-president, Lucy Daniels; and cheer leader, Sanford Thomas.

THE MESSIAH A SUCCESS.

A large number of townspeople as well as college students took advantage of the rare opportunity of hearing Handel's great Messiah, given under the direction of Mr. Brown, on the night before the college closed for the holidays. The solo parts were sung unusually well by Mrs. Brown, alto, Miss Wilcox, soprano, Mr. Fred Patton, bass, and Mr. Judson House, tenor. The well organized work of the college chorus added much to the success of the Messiah and proved the ability of Mr. Brown as a director. Everyone is now eagerly awaiting the performance to be given in the spring.

WELCOME!

We are delighted to welcome into our midst about fifty-six new girls. About eight of this number are taking the commercial course, while the others are pursuing the regular academic courses, or doing special work. We are glad to have these girls here, and we wish them every joy and success in their work.

BACK AGAIN.

How many of us remembered our college spirit while we were home Christmas? How many of us did what was suggested in our last editorial, or on the other hand made some slurring remark about our college or some of our college organizations? No, few things are perfect; but have we done our part, much less our best, in endeavoring to correct the mistakes and make perfect the daily things around us? Perhaps our criticisms are just, but why are they just? Have we not done our share in making possible this adverse criticism? Right here hangs the whole matter,

"For the strength of the pack is the wolf,
And the strength of the wolf is the pack."

The trouble is that we do not realize the truth in Kipling's statement. Every time we "knock" our Alma Mater we are hurting ourselves; and every time we "knock" the results of the efforts of the best we have in our student body, we are likewise hurting our Alma Mater, "So the law runneth forward and back."

Now is a good time to stop and let the old order change, giving place to new, lest the old order should check the progress of our Alma Mater and ourselves. "We want to be ready to take the place open for us in the future. So we must all work together honorably and unselfishly to reach the ideals of personal responsibility, self-control and loyalty which, as citizens, we owe to our college and to our nation."

We suggest that if everyone would change all the "would be's" to "will be's," and include in their New Year resolutions the lines of Howard Arnold Walter:

"I would be true, for there are those who trust me.
I would be pure, for there are those who care.
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer.
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.
I would be friend to all—the foe—the friendless.
I would be giving, and forget the gift.
I would be humble, for I know my weakness.
I would look up—and laugh, and love, and lift."

And live up to them, that we would all be friends and a happy lot.
M. K.

To the Editors of the Carolinian:

One of the ties that has kept me closest to the progress of the college and has given me most real pleasure this fall is the Carolinian. May I express my thanks to the editors and congratulate them upon the results of their efforts?

FACULTY NEWS.

Miss Bollinger will leave Friday, the 17th, for Washington, where she will attend the dinner of about forty Alumnae in Washington. She will be in Washington about three or four days doing Alumnae work.

Miss Gertrude Mendenhall spent the holidays in Florida. She had a delightful trip, but unfortunately brought a very troublesome souvenir with her—a cold. This is why we have enjoyed so little of her company since our return.

Miss King reports a very delightful trip to New York during the holidays. She was accompanied by Miss McCullen, of Peace Institute, Raleigh.

Olga and Daniza Spend Their Holidays at Selma and Wilson's Mills.

Olga and Daniza report that they had a very pleasant time during the holidays. They were with Esther Vinson, of Selma, from the 19th until Christmas day. They spent the 25th, 26th and 27th with Margaret Wilson and Elizabeth Uzzle, of Wilson's Mills. On the 27th they returned to Selma and stayed with Esther Vinson until Tuesday, the 30th, at which time they went to visit Lena Whitley, of Wilson's Mills, and remained there until time to return to college.

How Many of Us Are Guilty of the Same Thing?

One girl informed another that she had been eating ever since she returned to the college to keep from getting homesick.

Old Freshman to new girl who has just entered college: "Are you going to take exams?"

New Girl: "No, I am going to take Journalism."

Katherine Willis says, "Walk on your heels and save your soul (sole)."

Miss Turner—Bessie, why is this scene in French trivial?

B. L.—Because I can't read a word of it.

S. S.—Oh, Miss McClean, what in the world can I do for my awful complexion?

Miss M.—You'd better diet.

S. S.—Oh, what color can I? Hadn't thought of that.

Mr. Hall, in American Literature class: "I don't see why it is people like to get married in June—but they do."

J. C.: "I guess it's because roses are cheap."

FROM OUR ALUMNI

MARRIAGES AMONG ALUMNAE.

Ward-Long Wedding.

Invitations reading as follows have been received at the college: Dr. and Mrs. William S. Long, Sr., request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Minnie Blanche, to Mr. William Ira Ward Thursday afternoon, the fifteenth of January, at half after four o'clock First Presbyterian Church Graham, North Carolina.

The bride was a prominent member of the class of '17 and has many friends at the college who wish her much success and happiness.

Nell Bishop Married.

Nell Bishop, one of the pianists of '18, was married on the twenty-fifth of December to Mr. Roy McHugh, of Florida. We remember the frequent visits of Mr. McHugh when Nell was a student here, and have been waiting for the news of the marriage of Nell and her suitor. Our best wishes are theirs.

Flossie Harris' Wedding.

On the 31st, at her home in Salisbury Flossie Harris, '17, was married to Mr. Spruill, of Lexington. It was a pretty home wedding. Before the ceremony Miss Genevieve Moore, '16, sang "Because," and Mr. Fred Young sang "I Love You Truly." After the marriage an informal reception was given for the guests.

Bean-Dennell Marriage.

Miss Mary Vivian Donnell, of this city, was married on January the third to Mr. Lewis Rockwell Bean, of Asheville. Miss Donnell is an alumnae of this college.

Gladys Murrill, '18, was married Dec. 25 to Mr. Werber. They will live in Charlotte.

Nancy Yarborough Studying in New York.

Nancy Yarborough, a member of the class of '19, who has been working at the Charlotte Sanatorium, went to New York last Tuesday, January 6, where she will take a course in bacteriology at the Post Graduate Medical College.

Miss Yarborough expects to be

A GLIMPSE OF THE PASSING THROG

'19's Visit Their Alma Mater.

Sara All, a '19 who is now continuing her music course in Boston, spent a part of Saturday and Sunday at the college, and she was received with open arms by all. "She is the same old Sara," everybody says. While here she was continually being besieged with requests "to play," which she very kindly did for the pleasure of many.

Several of the members of the class of '19 have honored the college with a very short visit since the holidays. Some of these are Mamie Leeper, Alma Hedrick and Annie Lee Stafford. They are all teaching and seem to be having a good time at it. Annie Lee's parting message was, "Hurry up, girls, and learn to teach and get a job in a little town; you'll have the time of your life." A hint to the wise is sufficient. Prospective teachers, get busy.

Florine Rawlings Here Monday

Florine Rawlings, an '18, visited the college for a short time on Monday. Those girls who knew Florine were mighty glad to welcome her home again.

A cold seems to be one of the chief things brought back by each of us from the holidays. Big colds, little colds, bass colds, and squeaky, soprano colds, together with all their brothers and sisters, were found to be represented in our after-the-holidays collection. It behooves each of us who has a cold to consider our neighbor, if only from a selfish standpoint, for if we carelessly give her our cold she may return the compliment as soon as we are well.

For the last few days there has been a conference in Chicago in which women from fourteen of the Western states were schooled as to how to conduct a political campaign. They were told how to go home and make a Democratic editor publish Republican pieces, how to manage a straight voting ticket, how to secure halls and speakers, and several other political manouvers.

gone a month or six weeks. Upon her return she will resume her work at the sanatorium.

GAIN AND LOSS

AT N. C. COLLEGE

SEVERAL OLD STUDENTS DO NOT RETURN.

New Students Arrive.

N. C. College has both gained and lost by the holidays. Which is the greater, it cannot be said.

Many girls are found mourning the loss of a friend or roommate, while many others are rejoicing because they have gained one or both of the above named. It is good to find, however, that the number admitted to the dormitory exceeds the number of those gone out.

Those who have not returned are: Margaret Mebane, Florence Till, Pearl Tilley, Hazel Stafford, Mary Alice Brooks, Lou Hollister, Mary Peacock, Florrie and Mary Elizabeth Leary.

Florence Till has left college for the present in the interest of her health. She will spend the next five months in Highland Hospital at Asheville, N. C.

Mary Peacock is now in Whitehead-Stokes Sanatorium in Salisbury, having undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Those who have just been admitted to the dormitory are: Anna Bostian, Carrie Clarke, Nell Chester, Virginia Cooper, Ruby Dallas, Christine English, Rebecca Fayssaux, Eleanor Harrell, Cecile Hall, Kathleen Kennedy, Wilma Kirkpatrick, Elva Rosser, Mary Lee Smith, Pauline Reid, Edith Thompson and Dorothy Park.

VESPER SERVICE SUNDAY.

Sunday evening at seven o'clock, in the chapel of Students' Building, Dr. Myers spoke to the students on the subject, "The Lord Shall Preserve Thy Going Out and Thy Coming In." He showed how our entire life was full of "going out and coming in" and how God watched over all of them.

Myrtle Warren sang and Louise Loetsch played the accompaniment.

DEATH OF MRS. LAWRENCE.

News reached the college early Tuesday morning of the death of Mrs. Lawrence, mother of Miss Grace Lawrence of our faculty. Miss Lawrence left immediately for Salisbury. The funeral was held Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock in Salisbury.

We ought to have a beauty show here at the college soon, for if cream, which descended on us in such a generous shower this week, has its advertised effect we shall all be ravishing in a few weeks. Lovely, soft, fair skin free from all sunburns, freckles, chaps, etc., is promised to every faithful user. The day of miracles is not over yet, it seems, and so we have great hopes of seeing our campus blossom forth with a wealth of beautiful girls.

'COURT' HELD HERE THIS WEEK

JUDGE KINARD PRESIDES.

LUTTIE STEPHENSON TRIED.

Fined 800 Dollars.

A special term of court was held here this week, presided over by Judge Marie E. Kinard. At this time Luttie Stephenson was tried for having one gallon of whiskey in her possession, for selling one gallon to Ethel Boyte, one gallon to Greensboro Drug Company, and for sending one quart to South Carolina. Luttie was found guilty of the first and last of these offenses and was fined $800 for sending whiskey out of the state. An appeal was not granted by the judge.

Don't be alarmed, for this was only Miss Ellington's history class.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Of the North Carolina College for Women.

Whereas, God, in His infinite wisdom, has claimed one of His children, our little friend and mascot, Jane Alderman Highsmith, and whereas we, the members of the class of 1922, have been greatly saddened by this loss;

Be it resolved, First, that we hereby give expression to our love for little Jane.

Second, That we have the deepest sympathy for her bereaved parents, who have always shown the greatest interest in the activities of our class, and whom we wish to claim as our very own.

Third, That a record of these resolutions be made in the minutes of the class and that a copy be sent to the college newspaper and to the parents as an evidence of our sympathy for them in their sorrow.

Marie Bonitz,
Carey Batchelor,
Mabel Stamper,
Committee.

"Some days must be dark and dreary" and true to schedule they are almost upon us. We refer to the siege of examination days which lie just before us. They begin this year on Saturday, January 24th, and run through the following Saturday, January 31st. We found the schedule prominently placed on each academic bulletin board when we returned from the holidays. It can't be said that its old familiar face was greeted by cheering words of welcome. It is having its usual effect, however, in fostering hard work all along the line, for, to paraphrase,

Men may come, and men may go,
But cramming will go on forever.

DR. FOUST ADDRESSES THE STUDENTS AT WEDNESDAY CHAPEL PERIOD.

Hives should be that we are placed in this world as stewards with certain privileges and possessions that we may use our power for the benefit of other people." We can't begin the New Year any better than to consider these things and thus make the world better and people happier with whom we come in contact.

Secondly, Dr. Foust explained that we are only responsible for what talent we may have. He said that some students become discouraged because they cannot accomplish as great things as other students. This is the wrong idea because we are only held responsible for our talents and we should use them as good stewards.

The way to make this year successful is to do our best. We should not worry about our marks, but always do our best. If we do this, it cannot help but be a successful year for us, Dr. Foust, and the college.
